

ANNUAL SYNOD OF PRESBYTERIANS OPENS

PROSECUTION DRAWS NET ON LOEB, LEOPOLD

Number of Witnesses Give Testimony In Kidnaping And Slaying Case

By GEO. R. HOLMES For International News Service.

CHICAGO, July 24.—Bit by bit, and fact by fact, the prosecution of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard A. Loeb, confessed kidnapers and slayers of young Bobby Franks, added today to the "mountain of evidence" on which State's Attorney Crowe has repeatedly vowed he will send them to the gallows.

A steady stream of witnesses flowed through the high chair by the judge's box in criminal court today and added their contributions to the damning net of evidence that the state is throwing about the pair of young college students.

Hotel clerks, railroad employees, physicians, fellow students of the pair and servants in the wealthy home of young Leopold passed in and out of the witness chair during the morning session of the famous trial.

All of them had some knowledge of the facts and circumstances leading up to the crime, some contribution to make to the state's case.

The boys, smiling, unperturbed and apparently interested as they would be in watching a theatrical performance, observed the numerous witnesses with unemotional faces. Many times they grinned at those whose words were bringing the hangman's noose closer and closer to their necks.

Life Sentence, Hope

Seldom did the attorneys for the boys make any objection or even question the witnesses which the state produced in such abundance. They have already staked their case on pleading guilty to the crime and hoping for a life sentence for the pair instead of the gallows.

The state's case against Leopold, Jr., and Loeb will be completed by Saturday, State's Attorney Crowe announced just before court convened today. The hearing may be completed early next week, he believed.

Revered From Hearing

The physical condition of both Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Loeb, parents of Richard Loeb, is such that neither will be permitted to come here to help their boy in his greatest hour of need, despite their pleadings to do so. This was announced today by Allen Loeb, who, though he is, has assumed the responsibilities here as head of the stricken family. Young Loeb had just talked with his parents and their physicians over long-distance telephones before making the announcement. Jacob H. Loeb, Richard's uncle, former president of the Chicago Board of Education, reiterated Allen's announcement, saying that doctors had told him it would be fatal for the defendant's father, millionaire vice-president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., to attend the trial.

Many Witnesses

"The state of my brother's heart is such," said Jacob Loeb, "that it would be tantamount to sending him to his death for him to be allowed to come here now."

Eighteen witnesses in all were examined at the morning session, and when court adjourned for lunch, State's Attorney Crowe was optimistic that he could complete the prosecution's case by Saturday.

At the same time Clarence Darrow, chief of the defense counsel, said he did not believe the defense would take more than three days, indicating that Leopold and Loeb may know their fate by the middle or last of next week.

Clarence Darrow, the shaggy, brilliant, resourceful head of the defense, is chary of discussing his plans for saving the necks of "Babe" and "Dickie."

"We are not looking beyond this trial," he said today. "We hope to accomplish here everything we want—and everything we want is simply that the noose does not reach these young boys."

"But the alienists?" he was asked.

"What do you think they were hired for?" he returned.

Apparently the least concerned of all those in the court room as to whether they hang or not, are the two principals—"Babe" and "Dickie."

Here Are Main Features Of Rules Governing Auto Traffic; Study Carefully

Every motorist should be familiar with the rules and regulations regarding traffic. Herewith are presented the main features of the California vehicle law, also an outline of the policy of the police of Glendale. The Glendale Evening News suggests these rules and regulations be clipped out, studied and carried by every driver. First are the main features of the state's vehicle act:

1 RIGHT OF WAY RULE—Vehicle on right has right of way, unless vehicle on left enters intersection first. Any vehicle exceeding speed limit forfeits right of way.

Exceptions to Right of Way Rule—(a) Vehicle on public highway has right of way over vehicle entering from private road or drive. (b) Police and Fire Department vehicles have right of way.

2 HAND AND ARM SIGNALS—Must be given from left side continuously during last fifty feet traveled before turning. Signal right turn—hand and arm extended upward beyond vehicle; signal left turn—hand and arm extended horizontally; stop signal—hand and arm pointed downward.

3 SPEED LAW—Never drive so fast as to endanger life or property; nor more than—

15 Miles Per Hour, in business district, at obstructed intersections of streets or railway crossings, on obstructed curves, or in passing schools. 20 Miles Per Hour in residence districts. 35 Miles Per Hour elsewhere, day and night.

4 DRIVE ON RIGHT SIDE OF ROAD—All vehicles must keep close to right hand edge of curb except when overtaking and passing other vehicles. Motorists may drive on left side of road in overtaking another vehicle if left side is clear and unobstructed for a distance of 300 feet.

5 OVERTAKING AND PASSING—Give two feet clearance and sound horn if outside business or residence district.

6 TURNING AT INTERSECTIONS—In turning to right keep close to right hand edge or curb of road. In turning to left pass close to and around center button.

7 PARKING—Prohibited on highway outside of business or residence districts. Prohibited in front of driveway to public or private garage or within 15 feet of fire hydrant or entrance to fire station.

8 LOADS ON PASSENGER VEHICLES—Loads on running boards may not extend beyond line of hub caps on left side nor more than 6 inches beyond line of hub caps on right side.

9 FIRST AID AND INFORMATION—In case of accident stop, give all necessary aid, take injured to physician; give your name and address.

10 REPORT ACCIDENTS—Motorists must report to Police Department accidents resulting in injury to or death of any person.

These regulations became effective September 1, 1923, having been passed by the California legislature.

The policy of the Glendale City Council has been to make as few local traffic ordinances as possible, relying on the police department to enforce the provisions of the California Motor Vehicle Act, declares John D. Fraser, chief of police. The above changes noted by the Automobile Club of Southern California have been supplemented only as follows:

3 SPEED LAW—Business and residential districts are posted. A speed of 35 miles an hour is permitted elsewhere. Allowance of 7 miles an hour is made by the police department in all cases, in order to cover a sudden "spurt" necessary to pass another car or get out of a situation, and so that the possibility of an error may not operate against the motorist.

5 OVERTAKING AND PASSING—While the state law applies here as elsewhere, the charge of reckless driving can always be brought when a motorist risks life or property in order to pass another car.

6 TURNING AT INTERSECTIONS—Where buttons are placed in the street, motorists must go around them or be subject to arrest. The police department has endeavored to use good judgment in placing them, the sole idea being to prevent accidents.

7 PARKING—A city ordinance prohibits double parking and regulates the parking angle and duration of parking. In the business section the time limit is one hour, during the hours from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night, except on Sundays and holidays. Motorists may not park within twenty-five feet of the corner on any street in the city. This is to allow motorists to make close turns, thus cutting down accidents and speeding up traffic. No parking is permitted in alleys, which are reserved for loading and unloading.

10 REPORT ACCIDENTS—A city ordinance compels motorists to report all accidents within the city limits, whether or not anyone is injured or killed.

All other provisions of the California Motor Vehicle Act apply in Glendale without supplementary regulations, Chief Fraser states. "If the state law is not satisfactory," he says, "let the people apply for a remedy at Sacramento, in the usual manner, and not criticize the Glendale police department for doing its sworn duty in attempting to enforce the law."

Seek Bodies of Two Lost Off Santa Cruz

SANTA BARBARA, July 24.—Search was being conducted today about the Channel Islands, thirty miles off the coast, for the bodies of Milton Stewart of Santa Barbara and Dr. Harold Bishop, Alhambra, who, with Mrs. Walter Wilkerson, were drowned when a small sailing boat containing four members of a camping party, capsized. Walter Wilkerson, husband of the dead woman, was saved by two members of the party who had remained on shore, and Mrs. Wilkerson's body was recovered by them.

The camping party numbering thirty-five men and women, prominent in Santa Barbara, left the city Tuesday for a two-weeks' stay on Santa Cruz island.

DIES FROM STABBING

SEATTLE, July 24.—Stabbed by a shipmate, John Galtney, 21, in a street fight July 14, Seaman Ernest F. Hybel, 19, of the U. S. S. Oklahoma, died in the city hospital today. A pint of blood given by William Waters, a shipmate, in a transfusion operation Sunday, failed to save the wounded sailor's life.

Jury Frees Accused In Dynamite Murder

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 24.—W. F. Crawford, William Downs and Taylor Downs, accused of the murder of J. J. McGuire, Los Olivos village blacksmith, who was blown to death last December as he slept in his home, were free today following the action of the jury which tried the trio in acquitting all three after five hours' deliberation. The jury returned its verdict late last night, and a wild demonstration ensued which defied the efforts of court officials to stop it.

BILLBOARDS PERMITTED IN CITY

Ordinance Adopted In Face Of Protest by Mayor, Planning Board

The Glendale City Council this morning adopted the billboard ordinance over the negative vote of Mayor Spencer Robinson. The ordinance grants billboard companies the right to erect billboards anywhere within the city limits of Glendale, subject to the approval of the City Planning commission.

In declaring against the adoption of this ordinance, Mayor Robinson stated that hitherto Glendale has been the only city in Southern California of its size where billboards were banned, and that it should continue to keep them out.

Mayor in Protest

"They are not artistic, the people don't want them, they are for revenue only and mar the natural beauty of the city," declared Mayor Robinson.

P. J. Hayselden, secretary of the City Planning commission, also spoke against adoption of the ordinance, declaring that billboards made for an unsightly city.

The City Council adopted the ordinance, nevertheless, Councilmen Asa Hall, C. E. Kimlin and S. S. Gilhuly voting in the affirmative. Councilman Sam Davis was absent, being out of the city.

CONSERVE SIGHT, PLEA OF SPEAKER

University Professor Urges Care of Eyes In Talk To Rotary Club

Dr. Frederick A. Woll, Columbia university professor teaching at the summer session of the University of California in Los Angeles, was the principal speaker at the Glendale Rotary club this afternoon in the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse. He urged the conservation of eyesight.

Supervisor Henry W. Wright also addressed the club briefly, promising that the county would use every means to get proper flood control in Sycamore canyon before the rainy season. He also mentioned the appropriation of $60,000 for the improvement of San Fernando road in Glendale and $100,000 for the same purpose in Los Angeles.

School Program

Attorney Albert D. Pearce, member of the Glendale Union High School board of trustees, and Mesdames Nettie C. Brown and A. A. Barton of the city school board, were present, the former stating that a joint report would soon be forthcoming from the two school groups outlining a conservative and farseeing program of development.

Mrs. Brown spoke briefly, telling of the union of interests which had been effected by the two boards. J. Herbert Smith, president of the club, urged the signing of the gas tax petitions which will give the municipalities additional revenue for local road upkeep.

Considerable enjoyment was given the club by the introduction of guests, many of whom are

LOCAL C. OF C. SECRETARY'S ACT SURPRISES DIRECTORS

Announcement of Executive's Decision to Change Comes From Beverly Hills While He Is Attending Commercial School

E. F. Sanders, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, has accepted the managership of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce. The announcement is made by the directors of the latter organization. The directors of the Glendale organization had no intimation of the change by Secretary Sanders, they state.

The announcement that Secretary Sanders had accepted the managership of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce has come as a distinct surprise to the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, as Secretary Sanders, before leading for Palo Alto to attend the summer school for commercial secretaries, at Leland Stanford university, had not advised any members of the board of directors of his intention to make any change from his position here.

Report Confirmed

Confirmation of the report was obtained this morning by The Glendale Evening News from R. W. C. Shull, president of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce, who stated that a committee from that organization had been in touch with Mr. Sanders since he arrived at Stanford, and that his telegram accepting the vacancy at Beverly Hills had been sent from that point.

Mr. Shull states that the understanding with Mr. Sanders is that he will not assume his duties at Beverly Hills until a successor has been appointed to fill the place in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Comes As Surprise

Directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, when apprised of the action of Mr. Sanders, declared that they had had no previous knowledge of any intention he might have entertained of resigning his post here, adding that Mr. Sanders had not discussed the possibility of his leaving Glendale now or at any other time.

Step Not Known

President W. E. Hewitt stated that he had no official intimation that Mr. Sanders was contemplating such a step at this time. "I knew some time ago," said Mr. Hewitt, "that Mr. Sanders was in touch with the Beverly Hills organization regarding a possible change, but I had not been informed that the negotiations had reached a stage where they might have been regarded as definite, nor had Mr. Sanders given me any inkling that he intended to resign from the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at this time."

D. H. Smith, first vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, stated that he had absolutely no intimation, officially or otherwise, that Mr. Sanders was planning taking such a course, and the announcement came as a complete surprise to him.

No Intimation of Move

The fact that Mr. Sanders had on several occasions recently delivered addresses before the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce

DELEGATES FROM THREE STATES ARRIVE IN CITY FOR CHURCH GATHERING

First Open Session to Take Place Tonight and Meetings Will Last Seven Days; Noted Speakers to Appear on Program

With delegates arriving in Glendale from points in California, Arizona and Nevada on every train and in automobiles, the annual synod of the presbyteries of these three states got under way today at the Glendale Presbyterian church. It is estimated over 500 delegates had registered at the church up to noon today and this number is expected to reach over 1000 before the day is ended.

Automobiles, secured by the committee headed by W. J. Glendenin, John Horsch and G. D. McDill, met the delegates at the station, while the committee, headed by City Councilman Asa Hall, looked after the delegates, who made the trip to Glendale in automobiles from California, Arizona and Nevada points.

Delegates Register

As the delegates arrived at the church they registered according to cities and states. This work was in charge of a large committee directed by Louise M. Guenther.

The first open session of the synod will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight, Rev. Walter E. Edmonds, pastor of the church, and general chairman of arrangements, announced today. The synod will last seven days, the final session being held next Thursday morning, July 31.

Preceding the meeting tonight, the synod field council, composed of clergy and laymen, met this morning in Room 204 in an executive session. A. S. Johnson, a wholesale grocer of San Francisco, presided at the opening session of the council, organization work was taken up. The council meets twice a year and arranges the work of the churches in the two synods, looks into all matters pertaining to the future welfare of the church, and hears reports.

At noon members of the synod field council adjourned to the Kopper Kettle, where luncheon was served. This luncheon meeting was also an executive meeting and closed to all except members.

Women in Session

The Federated Women's Aid society, of Los Angeles Presbytery, opened the annual meeting at 11 o'clock this morning, at the church. Mrs. W. D. McConnell, president of the society, presided at the meeting, which was held in the main auditorium. A detailed report of this meeting appears elsewhere in The Evening News today.

The meeting tonight will be a joint meeting of the synod of Arizona and the synod of California and Nevada, to be held in the main auditorium of the church. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Dirk A. Lay, moderator of the synod of Arizona, and Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee of Berkeley, moderator of the synod of California and Nevada. The meeting will be preceded by devotional services.

Program of Classes

The conference program of classes will start tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and will last until 12:35 p. m. each day, with the exception of Sunday. Subjects to be taken up at these conference classes include: Stewardship, training for leadership in the

WOMEN AID IN CHURCH ACTIVITY

More Than 700 Present at First Meeting; Outline Organization Work

An inspiring prelude to the program of the Presbyterian Synod meeting at the Glendale Presbyterian church from today until July 31, was the gathering of over 700 women at the church today for a session of the Federated Women's Aid Society of the Los Angeles Presbytery.

There were 695 delegates officially registered, while this number was augmented to over 700 by women from other parts of California and from Nevada and Arizona, come to attend the synodical meetings.

Give Greetings

Mrs. W. D. McConnell, president of the Federated Women's Aid society, presided with dignity over the morning meeting. Greetings from the city of Glendale and from the women of the Glendale Presbyterian church were given by Mrs. J. M. Eyerick, president of the Women's society of the Glendale church.

Speakers of the morning were Dr. Andrew Beattie, superintendent of the Presbyterian orphanage at San Anselmo; Mrs. G. W. Sessions, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Robert Freeman.

Dr. Beattie outlined the administration at the orphanage, telling of the wonderful work being accomplished. So impressed were the women with his report that unanimous action was taken to give one-third of the morning's offering to the orphanage.

Tells of New Plan

Mrs. Sessions spoke on "Relief and Sustenance," while Mrs. Lewis, representing Mrs. Lucy Tanner, told of the three luncheons the Presbyterian women serve each week in Los Angeles for business women.

Of special importance was the talk by Mrs. Freeman on "The New Synodical Plan of Organization." Mrs. Freeman is a vivacious speaker and held the attention of her hearers throughout her

ROAD FOR TRUCK TRAFFIC SOUGHT

Proposed Route to Parallel
S. P. Tracks Through
Valley Cities

BURBANK, July 24.—A truck highway west of and paralleling the Southern Pacific tracks through Glendale and Burbank is the proposal of the Regional Planning commission, whose secretary, Hugh Pomeroy, announces that preliminary surveys are now being made. Such a highway will not only relieve the present congestion along San Fernando road but will afford a new artery of travel to a large acreage of industrial sites.

It is planned to have the highway start at Flower street in Burbank and continue along the Los Angeles river bed into the east side industrial district of the metropolis. From Flower street the traffic would radiate to all the vast acreage suitable for industry in Burbank's vicinity. It is pointed out, while in Los Angeles the terminus would give access to practically all of the plants and railroads allied to successful production.

Actually, the truck highway would branch off San Fernando road at Turkey crossing the heaviest share of slow traffic and free San Fernando road of its greatest drawback, in the opinion of Mr. Pomeroy.

Test For Officers
A competitive examination was held Monday night during a session of the training school for non-commissioned officers at which time the men were tried out for the position of corporal, five of them being chosen for such promotions. The lucky men were John W. Evans, Raymond B. Houghton, Hersom B. Clappitt, Joe VanFrank and Norman E. Bruns. These men will now all be advanced to the rank of corporal.

Miss Blanche Kunkel of Indiana and her friend, Miss Mayme Beaver of Louisville, Kentucky, have left for their respective homes after a pleasant visit of five weeks with the former's brother, M. J. Kunkel, on Tujunga avenue.

WRITERS' LEAGUE MEMBERS GUESTS

Monthly Meet of Penwoman
Held at Residence of Club President

EAGLE ROCK, July 24.—The monthly meeting of the Los Angeles branch, League of American Penwomen, was held at the home of Mrs. A. G. Reilly, 1760 Colorado boulevard, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Reilly is president of the Women's Twentieth Century club.

The following program, arranged by Miss Abbie N. Smith, was presented:
Community singing led by Mrs. Leonard Hammond; selection—orchestra, Junior Auxiliary, W. T. C. C.; address of welcome to the league—Mrs. A. G. Reilly; response—Mrs. Bertha Lincoln Heustis, president L. A. P. W.; Egyptian dance—Evelyn Mair; humorous character sketches—Miss Barbara Daly; whistling solo—Miss Helen May Richardson; Norwegian costume dances—Ten little girls; The Woe of June—Charles Willerby, Mrs. Paul Elderkin.

By special request the wedding of Miss Blossom and Mr. Orange was repeated, followed by a reception.

Light refreshments were furnished and served by Mrs. H. M. Perry and Mrs. R. P. Smith, members of both clubs.

Mid-Summer Dances
Mrs. E. W. Thompson has announced that the first two of the mid-summer dances at the Women's clubhouse will be given tomorrow night. This will prove decidedly pleasing to the young people and their guests who are remaining here during the month.

The strawberry festival given by the Senior and Junior Rosarians, St. Dominics church at the Sister's residence on Chickasaw avenue, proved a very attractive entertainment. The Misses Bertha Linn and Agnes McGee directed the evening's program, which included delightful readings and music. Delicious refreshments proved a welcome feature.

Two summer garden parties are being planned by the Young Men of the Congregational church, the proceeds of which are to augment the fund for the furnishing of the new church.

BUILDS OFFICES IN COURT STYLE

Six Units Connected With Central Bureau That Supplies Service

TUJUNGA, July 24.—An innovation in offices is being introduced in Tujunga by J. R. Morgan, who is building a six-office court on Michigan avenue near Marshall street.

The offices are built in units similar to bungalow residence courts, with four offices in front and two at the rear of a ten foot courtway. The outside walls are finished in stucco, semi-mission style.

Central Bureau
One feature of the plan for operating these court offices is a central office for service to the entire court, the service to consist of information, telephone messages and other items of everyday business that are necessary, but which can be attended to by one person, thus relieving the tenants of many bothersome details during the day. The owner plans to maintain this service for the tenants, reserving one of the units for his own office.

A subdivision unit in the Blanchard canyon section is soon to be placed on the market by Mr. Morgan, who says the unit will consist of 400 lots, suitable for building mountain cabin homes or permanent residences.

COMMENT That's All

City Power Plant
Turn Over $318,272
Riverside's Policy
Thirty Years' Profit

By Gil A. Cowan

In view of the interest locally in a municipal electric light plant the following is taken from the Riverside Press and will suffice for Comment today:
The leading editorial in a recent issue of the Sacramento Bee was devoted to the municipal electric light plant of Riverside as a striking example of the success of municipal ownership. Riverside was interested in this editorial, which follows:

Riverside is exposing herself to severe criticism from public service corporations, especially those dealing in electricity.
Not only does the city own and operate an electric plant, on which she made large profit last year, but she also renews for her customers all lamps free of charge.

Furthermore, she is accused of underselling the Southern California Edison company, operating in the same territory.
But that is not the whole story. It appears from the last annual report of the city auditor that a surplus of net earnings of the municipal electric department had been transferred to the account of the city waterworks, parks and the city's general fund.

So here we have a city actually making money in the electrical business, with relatively low charges, and using the profit for the public benefit, thus depriving a private corporation of the opportunity to make a like profit and distribute it to the needy stockholders!

Not only does Riverside thus lessen the opportunities for private enterprise and the profitable investment of private capital, but her officials actually are proud of the fact.

For example, Mayor Evans says: "In many ways we are able to do, and actually do, much that a private company would not do."
"We return as a present to our city general fund the amount of our street lighting, which last year was about $21,000."

Such a pernicious example of municipal money-making under public ownership must, of course, tend to encourage wasteful outlays for improvement of streets, parks and other public works, even if it does lessen city taxes. At least, the corporations may say so.

One of the worst results of cases of this sort is their tendency to discourage private corporations from taking an active part in the regulation or control of city government.

The Edison company, for instance, cannot feel the same interest in the government of Riverside as it does in that of other cities in which it has all or a part of the electrical business.

If Riverside were soon to elect another mayor and a new council the company would say:

"What is that to us?"
It would decide to take any part in the choice or election of candidates. And so, with no such financial guidance the voters might put in the hands of the municipality into the hands of "extravagant spendthrifts."

There are some facts regarding the municipal light plant that warrant an even more enthusiastic statement than that made by the Bee. Here they are and they will surprise many Riverside taxpayers:

The plant is now carried on the city books at valuation of $701,505.61. That property worth close to three-quarters of a million dollars, has been built up in a period of less than thirty years from the earnings of the plant, except $80,000 voted in bonds—two issues of $40,000 each.

During its operation for that period the plant has supplied from its earnings, in addition to what went into the property, $318,272.42, which has been transferred to other city funds, thus making other municipal improvements possible. There is now on hand $184,302.14 and it is no secret that a part of this will be transferred to the water fund and used for improvements in the municipal water system.

It is very evident from these figures that the plant has shown a profit of over a million dollars in the thirty years of its operation. It is certainly not remarkable that there is a strong sentiment in Riverside in favor of the public ownership of utilities like power and water.

Dollar Day Observed At Marinello Shoppe

If milady wished a special Marcel or water wave today, all for $1, she visited the Alta Jane Marinello Shoppe at 919 East Broadway, where a special "Dollar Day" price was observed, as advertised last night in The Glendale Evening News. The Alta Jane operators are all trained and expert in their work, and whether it be "Dollar Day" or any other day, maids and matrons are pleased with the service there.

MINOR OPERATION
A minor operation was performed this morning at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital upon Jerry Reed of 526 South San Fernando Road. Mrs. Allen Baker of 111 North Central avenue underwent major surgery this morning at the same institution.

GIRL SCOUTS IN PLEA FOR AUTOS

Vehicles to Carry Members
To Camp Are Sought
By Troop Leader

LA CRESCENTA, July 24.—The Girl Scouts of La Crescenta valley through these columns are making a plea for cars to take them to their camping ground at Laguna Beach. Scout Captain Jessie Hansen states there have not been sufficient cars promised as passenger vehicles nor so far has any one responded to the request for the use of a truck to haul equipment.

The La Crescenta Girl Scout troops are not on the same basis as the Boy Scouts to whom every one is willing to give a helping hand, and so far, aside from raising money by little parties, the Girl Scouts have never asked nor has any aid been extended them financially. Now they are only asking for the public spirited citizens of the valley to loan them a truck and see that the girls are transported to Laguna Beach.

Any one desiring to assist the Scouts in this manner should get in touch with Scout Captain Jessie Hansen at her home on East Piedmont street, or leave word at the La Crescenta library or drug store. The Scouts will leave here August first.

Missionary Meeting
On Friday of this week the women of the Community Church Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Spark at the corner of Mayfield and Pennsylvania avenues at 11 o'clock.

At noon a picnic lunch which the women are providing will be served.

Business will be taken up at the regular hour and the afternoon will be spent in routine work.

Edgar Wikerson and George Sandburg, two youths from Palms are enjoying a camping party on the Wikerson property at the corner of Altura and Rosemont avenues.

Master Glenn Smith of Bell has been the guest of John Hansen for the past few days.

Care of Eyes
In his address of the day, Dr. Woll stated that the perfect pair of eyes has yet to be found, although many eyes are considered normal. Care of the eyes should begin in the instant the child is born. In these United States, said Dr. Woll, "than in any other country in the world. But we do not think enough of those who are suffering and need aid, who do not complain."

After telling how the local fatigue of the eyes gradually tired the entire body and caused drowsiness, the professor cited instances of what investigations had revealed.

Tells of Tests
Of 3000 paper box factory employees examined, 2160 had defective vision; another firm increased its production 23 per cent following the result of visual experts' work; the American Car and Foundry company reduced accidents 75 per cent by aiding their employees' sight; a typewriter firm found 58 per cent of their office workers needed glasses and one out of every five inspectors in a rubber plant were found unable to see defects for which they were looking.

The list of visiting Rotarians follows: George H. Whistler, Palo Alto; Marc McClure, Modesto; Thomas H. Walker, Anaheim; George S. Sloan, Miami, Ariz.; Fred Hart, Globe, Ariz.; Alva G. Fessenden, San Bernardino; George Bennett, Urbana, Ill.; Lapsberry A. McAfee, Berkeley; W. L. Park, Las Vegas, Nev.; W. C. Wickenden, San Luis Obispo; J. N. Van Meter, Jake Swall, J. H. Gem Robbery Yields
Two Bandits $125,000

DETROIT, July 24.—Two armed bandits followed Joseph Mazer, New York jewelry merchant, into the Capital Jewelry Shoppe today, held up Mazer, Jack Wolfe, proprietor of the shop, and escaped with $125,000 in gems, according to Mazer.

HOLDUPS CONTINUE

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—Continuing their reign of terror, bandits staged five bold holdups here today for a street peddler alleged to have sold canned food for Mrs. Marion Condit, causing the deaths of Mrs. Condit and her son, Robert.

CALLES IN ARIZONA

NOGALES, Ariz., July 24.—P. Elias Calles, president-elect of Mexico, was due to arrive here today on a brief visit. While here he will be the guest of his son, Rodolfo Calles.

NOTED MUSICIANS TO WIELD BATON

Famous Conductors to Lead
Orchestra Productions
At Hollywood Bowl

Rarely do Californians have the opportunity to hear three distinguished conductors in one week interpret the works of the great masters with a symphony orchestra of 100 artists. This is the advantage which all within reach of the great Hollywood Bowl will have next week, when three men, all standing in the front rank of American musicians, will contribute their skill toward the success of the fourth week of the famous symphonies under the stars.

The Hollywood Bowl, situated at the junction of Highland and Cahuenga avenues, seats between 10,000 and 25,000 people, and with its new parking and traffic regulations, can quietly disperse a large audience in seventeen minutes, and unpark 900 cars in forty minutes.

Alfred Hertz, one of the great ones, was for thirteen years maestro with the Metropolitan Opera company, and for the past seven years conductor of the San Francisco Symphony orchestra. He is wielding the baton this summer over the Bowl Symphony orchestra.

Will Honor Cadman
Ernest Bloch, the second of the three eminent men, is considered the most intellectual of American musical pedagogues today. He is giving a series of lectures at the University of California, and will conduct one of his own compositions next Tuesday night.

Arthur Alexander, the third, is a comparatively young American, who studied with Jean de Reszke, and then toured Europe in self-accompanied song recitals. He is an accomplished organist, and has conducted for several years the Symphony orchestra of Rochester, N. Y. He will conduct the Bowl orchestra on Friday night, when Charles Wakefield Cadman is honored by devoted Californians and Kiwanians. Cadman was recently made an honorary member in the Los Angeles Kiwanis club, and will present Margaret Messer Morris as soloist on Cadman Night at the Bowl.

Bowl prices of 25 and 50 cents prevail, putting this splendid music within reach of everyone.

Women and Church In Various Activities

talk. She gave as the two chief aims of the new plan, "To have all women of the church back of the work of the church, and to have all women of the church intelligent concerning the four boards of the church."

Attend Luncheon
Following the morning meeting luncheon was served with 555 being served. Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Edmonds were among the special guests seated at the honor table.

Miss Winifred Rouzee, traveler, Bible student and teacher, who has many friends in Glendale, where she has had charge of the Bible department of the Tuesday afternoon club, directed the devotional hour following luncheon. Speakers of the afternoon were: Miss Bertha Oliver, Miss Antoinette Sabel of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; and Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth church, Chicago.

Defer Action on Move Amend Club's By-Laws

The question of amending the by-laws of the Oakmont Country club, to enable the members of the board of directors to levy assessments upon all club members if there is an occasion, was not decided at the meeting of the directors last night at the club house. The matter was laid over until the next meeting of the directors, which will be held the night of August 12 at the club house, according to Harry E. Hall, member of the board.

Notices of a meeting of the club members for the night of August 1 are being mailed out today, Mr. Hall said.

Churches Will Unite For Sunday Services

SUNLAND, July 24.—Union services between the Baptist church of Sunland, and the Tujunga Community church will be held at Sunland Sunday night. Rev. W. E. Smith, pastor of the Sunland church, will preach the sermon.

Christian Endeavor societies of the two churches are planning a meeting to be held at the Tujunga Community church on the same evening. The leader will be chosen from the Sunland society.

Third Zone Kiwanis Clubs Plan Meeting

TUJUNGA, July 24.—A meeting of the third zone of the California Kiwanis clubs will be held Monday, July 29, in Tujunga. The third zone includes the clubs of Glendale, Van Nuys, Lancaster, San Fernando, Eagle Rock City, Burbank and Hollywood.

Burbank Kiwanians sponsored and launched the Tujunga club when it was formed the first of the year, and a large delegation is expected to be present from there. All other clubs have signified their intentions of being represented.

H. M. L. Lion, Admiral Beatty's old flagship, is to be demolished.

VETERANS UNITE IN CELEBRATION

Ceremonies at Breaking of Ground for Patriotic
Hall Are Planned

Veterans of American wars are to join Saturday afternoon in celebrating the breaking of ground for the new Los Angeles County Patriotic hall at 1316 South Figueroa street. Many Glendale members of the American Legion, Spanish War Veterans and Grand Army of the Republic will be present for the celebration, which is scheduled to begin at 3 o'clock.

The proposed building is being built as a memorial in appreciation of the services rendered to this country and especially to this county by the men of these three organizations.

J. H. Bean, whose untiring work has aided materially in bringing the plans to their present successful stage, says that it was finally decided that a beautiful building represented the ideal of progress and peace. It was this thought and the effort to express it that gave the county board of supervisors the idea for the memorial.

Many Submit Plans

This thought was also in the minds of the sixty-eight architects of the Allied Architects Association, each of whom submitted his sketches before deciding on the final plans, and it was this thought that governed them in combining their ideas into that whole solution which would best show their appreciation of the past, their reverence and loyalty, and teach those to come the lesson of patriotism, which our veterans have ever shown.

A wiser choice of men to carry this project through could not have been made than those chosen—our board of supervisors; R. F. McClellan, J. H. Bean, Prescott Cogswell, F. E. Woodley and Henry Wright. Such names as are on the board of directors of the Allied Architects Association, which has been so instrumental in the ultimate accomplishment: Edwin Bergstrom, Myron Hunt, A. M. Edelman, Sumner Hunt and David Allison; and finally those members of the Los Angeles County Veterans Memorial building committee: J. W. Aubrey, W. S. Daubenspeck, C. F. Derby of

Asks Separate Order On Street Lighting

Councilman Hall introduced a motion in the City Council today that separate proceedings be instituted for the installing of an ornamental street lighting system along Colorado boulevard from San Fernando road to Glendale avenue, except between Brand boulevard and Central avenue, where street lights are already in. The motion was passed and the matter referred to the city attorney.

The matter of allowing an arcade to be built out over the sidewalk in a portion of the Sparr Heights tract along Verdugo road was again brought before the council this morning and after considerable discussion the matter was laid on the table until the session of Tuesday, August 5, when Virgil B. Stone, city manager, will have returned from his vacation.

Propose Payment to Slain Youth's Mother

A communication was read before the City Council today from Benjamin F. Dupuy, city engineer, requesting that Mrs. Ely, mother of Walter Ely of the engineering department, who met with a fatal automobile accident Sunday, July 20, be allowed one week's time and six days' sick leave, as permitted under the city charter. The letter stated that the engineering department has subscribed $150 to be given Mrs. Ely, who is understood to be in need. The matter was referred to the city engineer.

Reduce P. E. Service To Save Electricity

A communication was read before the City Council today from the Pacific Electric company, stating that, in order to make the necessary cut in electricity requested by the power supervisor following the meeting of July 19, it will be necessary to reduce service on the Glendale line, during the midday period, from one car every fifteen minutes, as the present schedule provides, to one car every twenty minutes.

PLAN ICE PALACE FOR LOS ANGELES

Glendale May Enter Amateur
Hockey Team In Match
If Completed

Ice skating and hockey tournaments will be the leading sport events in Los Angeles if plans now under way by the Los Angeles Ice Skating association materialize, according to B. P. Fisher of Coker & Taylor, and an amateur hockey team from Glendale will be entered in the tournament. Mr. Fisher is an ice star, having played in a number of championship matches.

During the season of 1916 and 1917, when the Seattle Hockey club won the world's title, Mr. Fisher was a member of the team. He played with Seattle three seasons, 1915-16, 1916-17 and 1917-18. He played with such stars as Lester and Frank Patrick, known throughout the sport world for their interests in hockey clubs. Frank Patrick is the president of the Pacific Coast Hockey association.

The ice palace proposed by the association should attract thousands of people to Los Angeles and be the center of activity for folks from northern countries, where ice skating and ice sports feature the winter months. It is planned to install a refrigerating plant to keep the temperature within the building below freezing point at all times, so the ice will remain hard.

Favor Acceptance of Reservoir Site Offer

A motion was introduced in the City Council today by Councilman Kimlin requesting the city to accept the offer of the Wellman Commercial Trust & Savings bank of Los Angeles to sell for $2500 a tract of land of over five acres, in the Glen Oaks tract, to be used for reservoir purposes. The motion was passed and the matter referred to the city attorney.

day morning, July 29, to go further into the matter of local traffic regulation, it was decided this morning, after a letter addressed to the council by M. Walters, chairman of the commission, and requesting such a conference, was read by the city clerk.

Verdugo Wash Absorbs Contraband Rum Flood

Quantities of highly alcoholic mixed drinks trickled down the thirsty throat of the Verdugo wash yesterday afternoon, final obsequies being in charge of Detective Sergeant H. A. Stanford of the Glendale police department. The mixture comprised twenty gallons of moonshine whisky, one quart of wine, two quarts of gin, and other sundry parcels of contraband liquor that had been seized by the department within the last few weeks.

Blaze In Automobile Yields to Chemicals

A touring car parked at the corner of Orange and Harvard streets suddenly burst into flames at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire department rushed to the scene and extinguished the blaze with chemicals. The license certificate showed the owner to be J. W. Smith of Los Angeles. Damage was estimated by Chief A. H. Langford to be approximately $100.

Grand Army Veterans And W. R. C. to Picnic

Echo Park, Los Angeles, will be the destination tomorrow of members of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief Corps, who are to enjoy their annual picnic outing. Those attending are asked to bring basket lunches and dishes. Coffee will be served by the Corps. Mrs. Mary Bennet, president of the Corps, announces that after the 12 o'clock luncheon there will be an informal program.

Junior Odd Fellows Will Close Charter

At the meeting to be held tonight, 201-A West Broadway by the Glendale Lodge I. O. O. F. No. 388, the charter for the Junior order of Odd Fellows will be closed. This will be the last chance given to Odd Fellows to become charter members of the organization. Noble Grand Holbeck will be in charge of the meeting, and urges all members and visiting members to attend.

Mrs. Lillian Dow Is Given Happy Surprise

Tuesday Afternoon club board members planned a happy surprise last night for Mrs. Lillian Dow, club director, who left at 8:15 o'clock from the Southern Pacific depot for an extended trip east.

Mrs. Dow was accompanied to the train by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philp, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker, Miss Annie Philp and Miss Alice Pooley. While she was visiting with this group Mrs. Daniel Campbell, junior past president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and members of the present board arrived to bid Mrs. Dow farewell. It was a most happy surprise and as Mrs. Dow boarded the train her club associates presented her with a gift. The board members are Mesdames A. H. Montgomery, John Robert White, Jr., Homer D. Lockwood, Chester O. Kling, A. R. Chappell, Harry C. Wilcox, S. C. Packer, Mabel Franklin Ocker, E. B. Sutton, H. E. Bartlett, B. O. Holbrook.

It is Mrs. Dow's plan to go north to Seattle and Vancouver

Engineer Ordered to Halt Cesspool's Flow

The attention of the City Council was called by Arthur F. Priest to the fact that the cesspool in the alley between Brand boulevard and Maryland avenue is overflowing and the city engineer was ordered to take immediate action to correct the situation. Protests against the improvement of Bonnie Brae street, Elm avenue, Kenilworth avenue, Mariposa avenue and Broadway were denied. Resolutions ordering in the work on these streets were passed. Ordinances setting aside commercial districts on Central avenue and along the Union Pacific right of way were adopted.

and the east through the Canadian Rockies. She will spend the month of August in Portland, Maine, and then go on to visit in New Hampshire and in her home city, Boston. She will return to Glendale late in October.

Two Reports Given at Advancement Meeting

R. M. Brown was chosen temporary president of the Glendale Advancement association to preside at the meeting held today noon at the Harriett Mae Tea room, in the absence of C. W. Ingledue, president. Mr. Brown also gave a report of the action of the Citizens' Bond committee, as he is the association's representative on this committee. J. F. McClish reported on the meeting of forest fire protective organization, and J. F. Chandler spoke on the needs of schools in the northwestern part of the city.

Official Welcome for Delegates to Synod

The City Council today authorized Mayor Spencer Robinson to issue a proclamation of welcome to the forthcoming Presbyterian Synod, when 1500 visitors from California, Arizona, Nevada, and such eastern states as New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois will be present in the city.

Daily Greeting To News Readers

THERE'S A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE—
Between mock modesty and genuine humility.
Between mere business and useful employment.
Between being economical and being miserly.
Between good grades and real scholarship.
Between true liberty and wild abandon.
Between laughing to live and living to laugh.
Between honest convictions and mere stubbornness.

AWAITING TARIFF COMMISSION

The purchase this fall and winter, of hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of manufactured goods ranging from millinery to flivvers is hanging in the balance at present. Growers of sugar beets and sugar cane in the continental United States, Hawaii and Porto Rico, are holding back their purchases to see what the tariff commission will recommend with regard to the proposal to lower the duty on sugar and what action President Coolidge will take on that recommendation under the flexible provisions of the tariff law.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that 917,000 acres have been planted to sugar beets this year and that this acreage should yield 838,393 long tons of sugar. Both beet and cane sugar men declare the latter figure is over conservative. Last year the acreage harvested yielded 1075 long tons per acre, with a total outturn of 786,607 tons. If that rate is maintained this year the yield would be 985,775 tons. Cuba had a tremendous crop this year, production there up to July 1 amounting to 4,043,179 tons against an outturn last year of 3,601,605 tons for the entire crop. If the present duty of 1.76 cents a pound on foreign sugars should be lowered by the president, domestic beet and cane growers declare it would mean a terrific loss to them, and practically would put control of the price of sugar in the hands of the cane sugar refiners.

Prospects are excellent for an equally large Cuban crop next year. In addition, the European beet crop is of tremendous proportions. It is estimated that the French plantings have been 30 per cent heavier than last year, and the acreage in that country should produce 630,000 to 650,000 tons if the weather remains normal, and 30,000 to 40,000 tons more if the weather is favorable for the next two months.

Consumption in Europe is low, since many cannot afford to buy up much sugar as in former years. A total of at least 1,000,000 tons of European beet sugar will be available for export, and already some German offerings have been sold for November-December shipment on a basis of 3.81 cents a pound, London. The estimate of the Polish crop is for 410,000 tons.

The present nominal quotation for beet sugar, which is always under the price of cane sugar, is under 6.50 cents a pound. Since the domestic crop, in order to compete in Atlantic coast markets, must be hauled long distances by rail, the menace of foreign sugars coming in a reduction of the present tariff of 1.76 cents a pound is fully realized by the domestic growers.

Actual consumption and distribution of sugar for the first half of this year totaled 2,684,972 tons. The amount to be consumed during the second part of 1924 is variously estimated. The American Sugar association figures place the total for the year at 5,369,944 tons. Some refiners, however, declare that the consumption for the next six months will not exceed that of last year, which was 2,186,993 tons, making the 1924 total only 4,871,965.

The tariff commission is expected to submit its report regarding relative cost of production at home and abroad in its recommendations as to a reduction of duty to the president this week. For a time the trade expected the commission to recommend a reduction from 1.76 cents a pound to about 1.35. Now, however, men in close touch with the situation are far less certain that such a recommendation will be made.

Domestic sugar commissioners have pressed home vigorously the point that comparison of production costs made over a period of late years do not give an accurate picture of production costs today, and say that, while they are willing to rest their case on comparative farm costs in Cuba and this country, they are unwilling that our farm costs should be placed against Cuban mill costs, which they declare includes a profit to the producer.

The political bearing of the matter at the present time is likely to cause considerable deliberation on action one way or the other, since sugar beet production is a major factor in the prosperity of thousands of farmers in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Minnesota, California and other western states.

NO NEED FOR PESSIMISM

The depression which seems general over the United States is a political and not a financial condition according to the World's Work for July. The nation as a whole is prosperous, and there is every indication that it will continue so. But there is a feeling in many quarters that the political situation is unsatisfactory. This magazine, however, sees encouragement in the fact that Congress which has "seldom stood in such low esteem" has performed one act that is compensation for its various other shortcomings. That is the settlement of the immigration problem.

"The vast and fundamental importance of this legislation, so far as the future of America is concerned, has already been emphasized in these columns," says the World's Work. "It has another significance, however, almost equally far-reaching. It shows that our legislative machinery has not broken down; that public opinion is able to control national policy in the matters that vitally affect the nation. The fear that Congress, because the party system is weakening and because the spirit of demagogism is growing, may degenerate into a wrangling and inept and do-nothing body, like the old Polish Diet, is not justified. The passage of the immigration bill itself discloses that, when the popular will is sufficiently determined on a line of action, Congress actually becomes a representative body, able to register that public will with a definiteness really eloquent. The American body is still a healthy body. It reacts, with an amazing vitality, to all attacks, even the most subtle ones, that threaten the essential things making up American life and American character. The energy with which it has thrown off an immigration policy that, if persisted in, would have changed the racial and mental foundation of the Republic and eventually led to national decay, shows that life, not death, is the dominant fact in the American constitution. The present occasion is, therefore, not one for pessimism."

It is a fact that the will of the people in this country is pretty potent after all, and the view which this magazine takes of the situation is encouraging.

The duties of the health officer involve prevention rather than treatment.

It is far cheaper to treat polluted water than to treat the consumer.

IT'S A CASE OF OWIN' OWEN

What Is a Boy?

By DR. FRANK CRANE

What is a boy?
He is the person who is going to carry on what you have started.
He is to sit right where you are sitting and attend to those things you think are so important when you are gone.
You may adopt all the policies you please, but how they will be carried on depends on him.
Even if you make leagues and treaties, he will have to manage them.
He is going to sit at your desk in the Senate and occupy your place on the Supreme Bench.
He is going to move in and take over your prisons, churches, universities, counting houses and corporations.
When you get done, all your work is going to be judged and praised or condemned by him.
Your reputation and your future are in his hands.
He will read the books you write or sell them to the second-hand man.

He will assume control of your cities.
Right now the future President is playing marbles, and the most famous actor of his day is complaining because he does not want to go to bed.
Not your contemporaries and fellow citizens, but the boys out there in the school yard, are going to say whether after all you were a grand and noble hero or a blatherskite.
It is the boy who will amend your rules, alter your creeds, laugh at your mistakes.
He may think kindly of you and say you did the best you could, or he may not. Watch your step!
All your work is for him, and the fate of the nation and of humanity is in his hands.
So it might be as well to pay him some attention.

Horoscope

Although Mars in benefic aspect dominates the morning hours, astrologers read this as an uncertain day, for Uranus and Venus are adverse.

It is a favorable rule under which to begin any sort of constructive work. Building should be most successful if started during this way.

Mars is in a place held to be promising to all military ambitions and the United States army will be greatly increased.

Honors to an American general are forecasted and there is a foreshadowing of increase of influence among men trained at West Point.

This is not a propitious planetary government for lovers and there will be a great temptation to indulge in dangerous sentimentality.

Women may be exceedingly unreliable while this configuration prevails, coveting admiration and adoration, but accepting homage selfishly.

It is not a lucky day for making new acquaintances and romances begun under this direction of the stars may be brief, disturbing and disappointing.

The mind is likely to be restless and depressed when Uranus is in evil place as in this day's configuration, but the wise person will keep dominion over thought.

Mars is in a place supposed to be responsible for the disintegration of governments and sudden changes.

While Mars will affect European countries most positively the planetary influences probably will be reflected in the United States where President Coolidge will meet new international problems.

Many suicides will be recorded at this time and a little later when there is likely to be a tendency toward rash and desperate acts on the part of persons usually normal.

All the indications as interpreted from the stars point to a continuation of the dope evil and increase in all forms of mental disease.

Persons whose birthdate it is may expect an active year which will not bring about many important events in their lives.

Children born on this day have the augury of success, for these subjects of Leo are generally clever, talented and very industrious.

Who's Who

An American education at Columbia university helped prepare Dr. Wellington Koo for his new position of acting premier of China.

Dr. Koo is one of the best known of Chinese statesmen, especially in the United States.

He represented China as minister to Washington and to Great Britain. During the time he held the London post he served also as Chinese delegate to the League of Nations Council and presided over one meeting of that body.

Dr. Koo was also the chief Chinese delegate at the Washington Arms Conference and was largely instrumental in bringing about the successful work of that meeting in connection with Pacific problems.

Soon after the close of the conference Dr. Koo returned to China to find the government there in the greatest confusion. The real power was held by the great military governors and General Chang Tso Lin and General Wu Pei Fu were fighting for control of Peking. Wu won, but the Chinese governments were still unstable.

The post of foreign minister was practically forced upon Dr. Koo and he held it through several changing administrations. He offered his resignation several times, but was always persuaded to remain in office.

The new premier of Australia is General James Barry Munnick Hertzog. He is 58 years of age and a native of Cape Colony.

As head of the Nationalists he was the logical man for the position of head of the new cabinet, a nationalist-coalition one.

Like General Smutz and the late General Botha, General Hertzog won fame in the Boer war against the British. He never has become thoroughly reconciled to British rule, however, and differs in that respect from the other generals mentioned.

He drew much strong criticism for his part in the rebellion of ten years ago. He has long been an advocate of the disenfranchisement of the natives or so-called segregation of the natives policy. He holds that the natives are distinct from colored people and that this distinction should be recognized.

LOVE'S LORD

When weight of all the garnered years
Bows me, and praise must find relief
In harvest song, and smiles and tears
Twist in the band that binds my sheaf;

Thou known Unknown, dark, radiant sea
In whom we live, in whom we move,
My spirit must lose itself in Thee,
Crying a name—Life, Light, or Love.

The Ravings Of a Crouch

If there is one thing that I cannot tolerate it is intolerance. It makes me angry to have a man or woman prescribe a line of conduct for me to follow or to ostracize me because my beliefs do not coincide with theirs. I despise a man who, though he may be very religious, reads the Bible for others (as a certain character Theodore Dreiser describes in one of his books). This man had grievances against nearly all of his acquaintances. He read his Bible assiduously but all the time he had others in mind and the only command he saw was repent. He did not feel obliged to forgive others until they repented. There are many people like him. It is so much easier to read the Bible for others than for ourselves, so much more pleasant to apply sermons to others than to take them home.

Intolerance and bigotry are the greatest hindrances to the growth of Christianity in the world. Some regret that there are so many religious denominations and give this as an excuse for not belonging to any church. When church members can't agree," they say, "how can they expect to win others into the church?" This is begging the question. No two of us are born alike and it is no more reasonable to think we should all worship alike than that we should work alike, look alike or think alike. Many of the denominations whose differences are slight might unite with benefit to all concerned but it would be impossible for all Christian people to get together on all details of doctrine and methods of worship.

It isn't a question of difference of opinion. That will always exist as long as men are created different. It is a matter of respecting the other man's opinion while holding to our own and of giving him credit for being as conscientious and intelligent as we are. It is the feeling, expressed in various ways by some church members, that they are right and everyone else is wrong that militates against churches of all denominations and consequently hinders the spread of Christianity.

I am a person of average intelligence. I feel that I am not mistaken in my religious doctrines and beliefs. What right has another man to look down on me, to speak slightly of me or to try to do me an injury because he thinks differently? Religious freedom is one of the foundation stones of our government, and intolerance, bigotry and reading the Bible for others are out of place among us.

And religion is not the only field where intolerance flourishes. We meet the bigot in every walk of life and he is a mighty unpleasant fellow.

CLUB WILL STAGE DOUBLE PROGRAM

Cast Rehearses for Plays To Be Presented In Patterson Park

Glendadians are to be entertained Thursday night, August 7, in Patterson Avenue park by two plays, "Flittermouse" and "Dun-sany's 'King Argimenes'." Given by the Twenty-Seven Dramatic club, an auxiliary of the drama department of Community Service, Wesley A. Havermale is directing the rehearsals, which are being held in the park.

The club is composed of high school students in the 1927 class, who are desirous of doing special dramatic work.

"Flittermouse" is a short one-act farce and the cast includes: Frisette, Dorothy Reed; Maude, her older sister, Peg Reeder; their mother, Frances Dasoff; Gerald, a young college professor, Agar Brown. The setting is a cabin in a northern woods.

Comedy and Tragedy
The longer play, "King Argimenes" is essentially a comedy, but there are some tragic moments in the plot. The action takes place "here or there, now or then" and the cast includes: King Argimenes, Donald Murray; Zarb, a slave, Eliot Horton; King Darniak, Agar Brown; the king's overseer, Clifford Jenkins; the prophet, Howard Sherwood; the idol guard, Jerry Oshier; servant of the king's dog, Virginia Clark; Queen Athalia, Frances Dasoff; Queen Oxaia, Ruth Campbell; Queen Thragolind, Jeanette Zeitlin; Queen Cahafra, Peg Reeder; queens of the harem, slaves, guards and attendants.

Special attention is being paid to lighting effects and costumes. Miss Ruth Jeckel is the designer of the costumes.

WIN HUGE TRACT

EL CENTRO, July 24.—Martinez heirs, through Adolpho L. Verdugo, Spanish names well known in the history of southern California, have been awarded 12,000 acres of Lower California land, which has been in litigation for the last ten years. The Southern Pacific company claimed the property, but the highest Mexican courts have ruled in favor of the original owners of the Spanish land grant.

VALLEY SAVES POWER

EL CENTRO, July 24.—Early closing of stores in the Imperial valley during the summer months will result in a material power saving, it has been reported by Southern Sierra Power company officials who are arranging to tie in with the San Diego lines to make interruption of power practically an impossibility. Heretofore every time the lights went out it was reported "the mesquite bush on the desert had broken down under the load."

TWELVE POUNDS OF GRAPES

HOLTVILLE, July 24.—A bunch of grapes is being exhibited at the Armstrong store here from the C. C. Cline vineyard which weighs twelve pounds. They are from a Thompson seedless vine.

SHOE COMPANY MOVES

COLTON, July 24.—The Starnes Shoe company of El Paso is moving to the old Marker plant in this city. Mr. V. Starnes and D. D. Winder being here to attend to the details of the transfer of the factory. Employees will arrive as fast as housing accommodations can be obtained, it is stated.

WHO IS REAL SHERIFF?

RIVERSIDE, July 24.—Sheriff Sam Ryan wants to know who is sheriff of Riverside county. A man driving about the countryside in a light touring car, identified only by a black mustache, is said to be warning ranchers that their children cannot be "worked" in the fields. Ryan wants to meet the impostor.

KLAN WILL INITIATE

RIVERSIDE, July 24.—An initiation of the Ku Klux Klan will take place at the Polytechnic High school stadium here tonight, an airplane bearing a fiery cross, to light the heavens during the ceremony, it is announced. There will be 3000 members attending the class work of 200 novitiates, making more than 1000 members in this community, it is added.

The manufacture and sale of tobacco in France is a government monopoly.

AUTOMOBILE SECTION

GLENDAL, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1924

Chrysler Clips Mt. Wilson Record

Wrong Signals Are Blamed for Crashes

Although the majority of motor vehicle accidents are caused by failure to signal properly, drivers are becoming more careless than ever, according to reports made to the Automobile Club of Southern California. This costly negligence is becoming more marked in spite of repeated warning on the part of authorities and the fact that a motorist failing to signal properly on turning is culpable in case of accident.

One report made to the auto club extended over four years of checking cars turning at prominent corners in Southern California. During the year 1920 one in every twelve drivers failed to signal properly. These delinquencies have grown more common until at the present the check shows that one driver in five is guilty of this breach of law.

No particular class of drivers is named. Limousines are equally guilty with flivvers, and male and female display similar disregard for safety.

Old Casings May Be Cut Up for Patches

A blowout patch can be easily made by removing the outside rubber of an old casing. Cut off the head, cut off a portion eight or ten inches in length and taper the ends so it will not cut the inner tube.

MAKE OWN GEARS

All the gears used in the Franklin car are made in the Franklin factory.

Clothing made of old newspapers is being worn by the Chinese.

Machine Winds Up Busy Day by Turning Mile Sprint at Culver City Track at Rate of Seventy-two Miles Per Hour

Whirling up Mt. Wilson toll road in the gray dawn of the morning, Ralph DePalma, at the wheel of a stock Chrysler six, on Wednesday, July 16, cut two minutes, 2.81 seconds from the former record which had stood undisturbed for more than two years.

The Chrysler's mark was 25 minutes, 48.55 seconds, an almost unbelievable mark to anyone who is familiar with the famous mountain road, with its climb of more than 4600 feet in nine and one-half miles. It was particularly remarkable in view of the fact that the car was not stripped, but carried all fenders, and was minus only the top glass in the windshield and the top. Even the muffler was not removed, nor was a cut out used, and DePalma's only complaint at the finish was over the fact that he had more power at his disposal than the rough condition of the road permitted him to use. With the exception of three short stretches where he dropped to low, he used second gear all the way up the hill, and at one point on the way up reached a speed of 44 miles an hour.

Record Is Official

The Chrysler's record run was checked off by four Los Angeles newspapermen, and was timed and handled in exactly the same fashion as have the previous record runs in the past. DePalma was started from the toll-house at the foot by one of the newspapermen, while the other three at the hotel at the summit listened to the starting word over the telephone as the signal to click three synchronized stop watches. The time as shown by the three watches varied less than a second, and the average of the three was taken as the time.

DePalma made a before-sunrise climb, to avoid the blinding glare of the early sun which would have imposed a greatly added hazard on some of the turns. The Mt. Wilson road, due to the dry winter, is in by no means as good condition as when former runs were made, in the opinion of Manager Cory of the Mt. Wilson hotel, and DePalma declared that the condition of the road was a handicap to him over certain stretches.

Plenty of Corners

"There are 144 curves on the road between the starting point and the finish line," explains Lyman P. Clark, of the Glendale Motor Car company, 124 West Colorado street, Maxwell and Chrysler dealers, "and the average driver feels lucky if he can make the nine and one-half mile climb in an hour. But, in spite of the terrific strain on the machine, when DePalma checked it at the summit the heat indicator registered less than 200 degrees, the water in the radiator had not boiled, and the radiator was as full as when the car started."

The car was equipped with full balloon tires, and DePalma declared after the run that they were of immense help to him in giving maximum traction on the curves and the rough spots on the road.

After the Mt. Wilson Climb

DePalma took the Chrysler to the Culver City track, where he circled the mile track in 59 seconds and attained a speed of 72 miles on the straightaway.

USED CAR FIGURES

There were 3,091,440 used cars sold throughout the United States last year. The average selling price of these cars was $308.63. For every 100 new cars sold, 73 used cars were turned in as part payment.

HISTORY OF CITY'S AUTO AGENTS SHOWS RECRUITS FROM MANY VARIED LINES

Veteran Of Business Recalls Days When Automobiles Ranked Something To Be Barred From Highways; Glendale Evening News Sketches Personnel Of Firms In Industry Here

Following the history of the various automobile agencies in Glendale, published in The Glendale Evening News automobile section on July 10, and the automobile dealers and car directory, published in the automobile section on July 17, The Evening News today presents a brief sketch of the men interested in selling automobiles in Glendale.

Some of the dealers here have been associated with the automobile industry for nearly a quarter century, becoming interested in the early days when folks considered automobiles as dangerous and tried to have them "lawed" off the highways. Other dealers started in the motorcycle business and gradually outgrew that until today they are successful agency owners.

Previous occupations of many are interesting. One man was a theatrical magnate in New York City before coming to California. Another sold lumber, another manufactured contractors' equipment, another was in the logging business, and so on down the line.

Following are the agencies, listed by cars, and the sketches of the personnel of each firm:

Buick

From the lumber business to the automobile industry is the jump of William A. Tanner, general manager of the firm of Tanner & Hall, Ltd., of 622 South Brand boulevard, Buick distributors for Glendale. Mr. Tanner came to Glendale in 1914 from Lexington, Neb. Before the firm of Tanner & Hall was organized, March 1, 1919, Mr. Tanner was associated with the Fox-Woodsum Lumber company, and was with that firm eleven years, in Nebraska and California. Harry E. Hall has lived in Glendale fifteen years. He established the first Oakland agency in this city and was the first Ford dealer in Glendale. Ray L. Galvin, sales manager for the company, has been a resident of Glendale for twelve years. He formerly lived in New York, where he was associated with the theatrical business. He has been connected with the automobile industry six years.

Studebaker

For the past thirteen years Stephen C. Packer, president of the Packer Auto company, 241 South Brand boulevard, has been a resident of Glendale. The Packer auto company is the local distributor for Studebaker cars, and Mr. Packer has held the agency since February, 1917. He was formerly in the logging business in the state of Washington, and before that was a lumber dealer in Michigan. His son, Donald H. Packer, who is general manager of the concern, has been associated with the Studebaker agency here for three years. Prior to the war he was on the road for the Celite Products company of North Santa Barbara, serving in this capacity for about eighteen months. During the World War, he served for two years.

Dodge

For fourteen years R. E. Corrigan, the authorized Dodge dealer in Glendale, has been associated with the automobile industry in various capacities. He has been a resident of Glendale for two years, opening the agency at 116 West Colorado street, in 1922. He was factory representative for the Dodge Brothers Motor company in California, Arizona, and Nevada for five years, a position gained through his intimate knowledge of Dodge cars. It was while traveling over his territory that he chose Glendale as the location for an agency on account of the possibilities of the future here as he saw it. George A. Clayton, sales manager for Mr. Corrigan, has lived in Glendale about 10 years. He was associated with George E. Clayton when Mr. Clayton had the Dodge agency here, and for four years was with Barker Brothers, in Los Angeles. He came to Southern California from Kentucky.

Chevrolet

C. L. Smith, proprietor of the Chevrolet agency at Orange, and Colorado streets, has been associated with the automobile and kindred industries for the past nineteen years. Years ago he started in the motorcycle business on the wholesale scale and had six men on the road. Later he engaged in wholesale and retail business of automobile accessories as well as motorcycles. He has been in Glendale for the past five years. Mr. Smith is

Cadillac

From the Sunny South comes William H. Court, owner of the Court Motor company, located at 901 South Brand boulevard. The Court Motor company is local distributor for the Cadillac cars, and the agency was formed by Mr. Court shortly after he came to Glendale, the doors being opened and the first Cadillac car displayed in February, 1921. Before coming to Glendale Mr. Court lived in Memphis, Tenn., and devoted his time to the supervision of large cotton plantations, and incidentally he is regarded throughout the south as an expert on cotton growing and grading. The first location of the agency was at 228 South Brand boulevard, later it was moved to 235 South Brand boulevard, and the first of this month the agency was moved to the new building at 901 South Brand.

Maxwell, Chrysler

Thirteen years of his business life have been spent in selling Maxwell cars or connected with the Maxwell company in Southern California, declared Lyman C. Clark, general manager of the Glendale Motor Car company, 124 West Colorado street, local distributors for the Maxwell and Chrysler cars. Before opening the agency here on February 1, 1923, Mr. Clark was wholesale manager for the Southern California distributors of Maxwell cars. He selected Glendale after surveying every city in his territory. He is president of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers association, past president of the Glendale Motor Car Dealers' association, past president of the Kiwanis club, director of the Chamber of Commerce and a director of the Glendale Merchants' association.

Hudson, Essex

P. A. Kelley, proprietor of the Kelley Motor company, of 816 South Brand boulevard, local distributor for Hudson and Essex cars, came to Glendale in May, 1923, when he took over the agency. He has been a resident of Southern California for the past five years and has been associated with various angles of the automobile industry in that time. G. G. Merrick, sales manager for the firm, has lived in Glendale four years, coming here from Canada. He has been connected with the Kelley Motor company about a year. Recently the Kelley Motor company moved into the new building at 816 South Brand boulevard, built especially for the concern.

CAMP-LOGY

Prepared in the interest of the Auto Camper
by the Western Auto Supply Co.

The value of a folding table for camping is every year becoming more and more pronounced, and travelers everywhere are to be seen with this sort of equipment.

A table is necessary at all times on any kind of a camping trip, and to make one that is light in weight, yet compact and sturdy enough to meet the outer's needs, is the aim of every camp table manufacturer.

The Western Auto Supply company are featuring three distinct types of tables for campers: the lightweight folding, the all-steel, and the California box table. The lightweight wood table and the all-steel type, when folded, can be slipped away anywhere in the car as they take up but very little room.

Most Elaborate

The California box table is, perhaps, the most elaborate table on the market, as it consists of a combined table and running board box. Folded, this table forms a box in which to carry the food and dishes. When the table is assembled, the sides of the food box are raised to form the table leaves and the box is left with screened panels to keep out flies and insects. The center panel of the table is elevated to allow extra room for dishes and food.

Many campers make the table their chief article, for they take it off the car first, set it up and pile the cooking equipment on it while unpacking the rest of the outfit. In packing the process is reversed, and the table is the last to be put aboard.

Keep Distance Towing

A distance of ten feet should span the towing car and the car being towed. Attach the rope or cable to the front frame of the towed car and to the back frame of the car that is to do the work. The lines should be on the same side of both cars, and great care should be exercised when releasing the clutch when the tow car starts. It is advisable for every camper-out to include a strong tow rope or cable in his equipment.

Carry Enough Tools

On the camping trip it is better to take too many tools than too few. They are so easily misplaced or lost and it is of vital importance to see to it that the tool kit is replenished before starting on the summer tour.

Limited space in the tool box prohibits the carrying of unnecessary tools, so it is important that the motorist should carry the needed tools in as compact a form as possible.

A good socket set answers the need of a complete set of wrenches in compact form. In a neat, cloth-covered case, size eight inches long by two inches wide and one inch deep may be found enough wrenches to make any adjustment that is needed.

It consists of a ratchet handle that works either way, six sockets that are cut from a solid steel bar, two screw driver bits and an extension handle. With all of the different combinations that may be obtained with this set, it gives the utility of a whole wheelbarrow full of single purpose tools.

As compactness is the main thing to be considered when making up the camping list, these sets are invaluable.

For Seat Cushions

If the cushions in your car are badly worn or are torn and shabby you should recover them with cushion and seat covers before starting on the summer trip.

Many car owners choose to cover their cushions before the trip, regardless of the fact that their cushions are in excellent condition, as the coverings may be removed when the tour is over, and it saves the rough wear that they would receive during the camping season.

Extra tires should also be covered by tire covers before the season of camping starts. The spare tire will depreciate nearly as rapidly if left exposed to the elements as if it were in actual use in the car.

FIGURES REVEAL AUTOS' STANDINGS

Buick Leads in California
In Registrations In Its Own Class

Members of the extensive Buick dealers' organization in California have had unusual cause for jubilation. With representative models of the new line of Buicks now scattered from one end of the state to the other, causing the most enthusiastic reception ever accorded this popular car, they feel justified in looking forward to a year of unprecedented prosperity.

Now come the figures showing the totals of the various popular passenger cars registered in California. These statistics, compiled by the State Division of Motor Vehicles at Sacramento, show that for automobiles listing at the respective factories in excess of $650, the Buick leads the field with 91,667. Ford and Chevrolet are the only cars ahead of the Buick and they sell for less than half the price of the Buick. Buick's two nearest rivals have total registrations of 77,237 and 66,692 respectively.

"Leadership in this instance comes by virtue of Buick's consistency in building an outstanding line of automobiles year after year," said W. A. Tanner of Tanner & Hall, 622 South Brand boulevard, Buick dealers. "It would take a person with a long memory, indeed, to recall when the fundamental engineering principles of the original Buick six were changed. There has been consistent refining and improving, but the basic ideas back of the Buick six remain the same."

7,000,000 BOLTS ARE MADE DAILY

Ford Plants Use 300 Miles
Of Steel Wire to Make
24-Hour Supply

The speed that must be maintained to supply the Ford plants with all the bolts that are needed in turning out the cars that flow from the various factories is shown by figures supplied by E. J. Flaherty, stock keeper of the Jesse E. Smith company, Ford dealers, at 115 West Colorado street, who says that 500 bolts a minute is the output of the machines at the Highland Park plant alone.

The plant uses 300 miles of high carbon steel wire daily to make the 7,000,000 bolts that are called for, and it is claimed that these bolts are from 50 to 75 per cent stronger than the average bolts that are on the market. The threads are rolled in under high pressure, instead of being cut in, and this, it is said, makes them stronger and more accurate.

Half a day's supply of wire is all that is carried on hand at the plant, and a careful check on the stock and the output is maintained all the time, in order that no delay may be permitted in turning out the quantity the schedule calls for.

As an instance of the strength of the Ford output it is said that the half-inch main bearing bolt will stand a direct pull equal to the weight of ten Ford cars.

With the possibility of the new German cure for sleeping sickness and tsetse sickness being effective it is believed that the white man will be able to invade parts of Africa now barred by the prevalence of these diseases.

TUNE IN ON THIS

VALUE vs. PRICE

Don't try to buy a thing too cheap
From those with things to sell—
Because the goods you'll have to keep,
And time will always tell.
The price you paid you'll soon forget,
The goods you get will stay;
The price you will not long regret—
The quality you may.

They ought to cut this "price" word out
Of dictionaries red,
Make VALUE what men talk about,
Not just the price instead.
In food or metal, cloth or woods,
Remember this advice;
Don't let the price control the goods,
But the goods control the price.

"In these days of good roads, it is not surprising to see an ever increasing number of women who 'drive their own,'" said P. A. Kelley of Kelley Motor company, 816 South Brand boulevard, local Hudson and Essex dealer. "After trying the joys of piloting their cars for themselves, going wherever and whenever they please, the next logical step was to demand a car that could be easily handled on long trips without fatigue."

"It took several years of experimenting for factories to perfect the motor car to the point now reached by Essex—a mechanically dependable car, combining power with economy, speed, with quick acting brakes, and a new spring suspension with easy riding qualities that amaze the uninitiated."

"In consequence of this the Essex Six is rapidly increasing the number of women drivers on the deserts of the southwest. It is no longer necessary for them to remain in the city or travel on the paved highway. Long trips across country may safely be undertaken by them, without fear of mechanical difficulties or physical exhaustion."

"Even in Arizona, part of which has notoriously poor roads, the woman driver finds enjoyment in the Essex. According to a letter received by Mr. Kelley Essex sales to women have doubled since the Six came on the market in January."

USE HICKORY IN WHEELS OF CARS

Studebaker's Carriage Stock
Incorporated in Late
Models of Autos

Incorporated in the new Studebaker light sixes and special sixes are wheels that are made of hickory that has been stored in the warehouses of the corporation from away back in the times when Studebaker carriages and wagons were known throughout the country for their high standards. Now that Studebaker is turning out automobiles on a quantity basis a use has been found for the hickory that has been gradually becoming seasoned until it has reached the pitch of perfection.

Nor is the quality of the wood the only merit, according to Don H. Packer of the Packer Auto company, 245 South Brand boulevard, Studebaker distributors. "The work on these wheels is done by artists in the woodworking line, men who have been with Studebaker for years and who know hickory and how to work it into wheels as no other men in the country do today."

"Each piece is seasoned until every possibility of shrinkage is eliminated, and there is no danger of wheels rattling or squeaking, no matter how long they may be used."

Incorporation Papers Of University Filed

SACRAMENTO, July 24.—Articles of incorporation of the Western University of Los Angeles today were filed with Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. Among the directors is William Crevey, 1426 W. Wilson place, Los Angeles.

The income of Sir Edmund Wesley, of England, is estimated at $750,000 a year.

CHRYSLER SIX

"Master of Mountains"

SETS NEW MT. WILSON RECORD

A Chrysler Six, strictly stock, driven by Ralph De Palma, sets new Mt. Wilson record, and wins Express trophy cup, Wednesday, July 16. Time, checked by four newspaper observers, 25 minutes, 48.85 seconds, beating former record of 27 minutes, 51.66 seconds by 2 minutes, 2.81 seconds. This also beats the non-stock record of 26 minutes, 56 seconds.

Distance, 9.5 miles. Elevation at start, 1250 feet, at finish, 5886 feet. Total climb, 4636 feet. Approximate average grade, 10 per cent. Maximum grade, 16 per cent. One hundred and forty-four curves in 9 1/2 miles. Road condition bad, due to dry season and heavy travel.

AN amazing speed record up a steep and dangerous road, yet if you had seen Ralph De Palma break the Mt. Wilson record, you'd have felt you could have done it yourself.

That was the biggest thing about the Chrysler record climb—it looked so easy.

Two things made it look that way. One was the tremendous surge of power that literally swept the Chrysler up those heart breaking grades. The other was the gripping hold of the four wheel hydraulic brakes when the Chrysler took the curves.

No swaying, sliding or skidding on the turns, just in and out and gone like a flash. The tires seemed to cling to the road like a flanged wheel to a steel rail.

De Palma will tell you it wasn't hard to crack the Mt. Wilson record—with a Chrysler.

Seventy horsepower in a compact—low swung—easily handled car. Brakes to match such power, and curb it to safety. Cooling to stand the test of nine miles of full-throttle pulling.

Chrysler Six, Master of Mountains. A car for California—and Californians.

Try it yourself, and see.

Wrong Adjustment of Headlights Dangerous

Much interest of late has been shown in the headlight law, according to Miller & King, who operate the Westinghouse battery station at the corner of Colorado street and Glendale avenue.

Statistics show an appalling loss of life, limb and property directly caused by improperly adjusted headlights which, in many cases, are the results of carelessness on the part of motorists through the little care that is given the headlight equipment, it is said.

The Westinghouse battery station is the official headlight adjusting station for Glendale and at a very small cost any lights may be adjusted so that the full requirements of the law will be fulfilled.

Plan Prosecution On Forest Fire Charges

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—Steps were taken by Los Angeles authorities for rigorous prosecution of twenty-five persons under arrest here on charges of violation of forest fire prevention regulations. The move to punish offenders against the laws protecting the county's forest areas from fire menace was in line with a general campaign to reduce the fire hazard during the remainder of the summer.

Burning of a twenty foot protective strip along public highways to prevent fires originating from carelessly thrown cigarettes and cigars of motorists and detailing of guards along highways to warn travelers of fire dangers were measures planned for protection against new outbreaks in the forests.

In the interior of Australia the fare for a trip of 404 miles by stage and camel is $50.

ively engaged in the automobile business. Prior to that time Mr. Penn had devoted his time to looking after his income property. The firm was at that time W. Penn-Rawls Motor company, W. E. Rawls being the other member of the firm. Early this month Mr. Penn took over the interests of Mr. Rawls and the firm name was changed to the Penn Motor company. He has been a resident of Glendale since opening the Moon agency, living for a long time at Long Beach, and prior to his residence in the beach city, he lived at Riverside.

Chandler, Cleveland

For the past seven years Bine J. Smith, one of the members of the firm of Smith Brothers, local distributors for the Chandler and Cleveland cars, has been located in Glendale. Before taking over the Chandler and Cleveland agency, Bine Smith was connected with the Broadway Auto Sales Service company in Los Angeles. Alfred D. Smith, his brother and the other member of the firm, came to Glendale two years ago from the Imperial Valley where he owned a ranch. When he became associated with his brother, it was his first venture in the automobile industry. The present location of the agency is at 1119 South Brand boulevard.

Gardner

Ten of the twenty years W. E. Healy, president and general manager of the Jellison Motor company, 1004 South Brand boulevard, local distributors for the Gardner car, has spent in Southern California, he has been connected with the automobile industry. He came to Glendale about a year ago from Los Angeles. The Gardner agency was established by E. V. Jellison in April, 1921, at the present address and a year ago Mr. Healy became a partner in the firm.

Roamer, Barley, Columbia

The Roamer, Barley, Columbia agency, recently opened at 1000 South Brand boulevard, is one of the newest agencies in Glendale. It was established by C. H. Watson and Alfred H. Barnes. Mr. Watson is president of the company, and has lived in Glendale for the past eighteen months, coming here from Chicago. He has been connected with the automobile industry for seventeen years, most of that time being spent in Chicago in various capacities. He was formerly associated with the Barley Super-service station. Mr. Barnes has lived in Glendale for four years. Before forming the agency with Mr. Watson, Mr. Barnes was a contractor.

Paige, Jewett

Ralph B. Bliss, proprietor and general manager of the Paige and Jewett agency at 219 West Colorado street, began in the automobile industry back in 1911. For five years he devoted his time to the selling of motorcycles. Later he was sales manager for a Los Angeles automobile concern. He secured the agency in Glendale in May, 1923. His home is in Los Angeles, where he lived for the past thirty-five years.

Oldsmobile

One of the first Oldsmobile agencies opened in the United States was started in Albia, Iowa, by C. H. Hunter, proprietor and general manager of the Oldsmobile agency in Glendale now, at 208 West Broadway. This was back in 1903 and Mr. Hunter has been associated with the automobile industry since that time. He has lived in Southern California for thirteen years. For five years he was a wholesale manager for Southern California for the Oldsmobile, and prior to that time he was connected with the wholesale departments of other companies. He has lived in Glendale two years, coming here from Los Angeles.

Jordan, Hupmobile

The Glendale distributors for the Hupmobile and Jordan cars, who opened offices at 111 West Harvard street less than two weeks ago, is in charge of H. V. White. The agency was opened by H. W. Swanson, who has charge of the Hollywood branch. Mr. White has been connected with the automobile industry for five years. He was with Mr. Swanson in the Hollywood office about one year before coming to Glendale when the local branch was opened, and prior to the time lived in Santa Barbara. His former home was Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. Swanson has devoted ten years to the automobile business. He has owned the Hollywood branch two years, was three years in Kansas City, where he held the Studebaker agency, and five years in Detroit, where he sold Hupmobiles. Mr. Swanson lives in Hollywood.

Ford, Lincoln

For the past ten years J. G. Caddell, proprietor of the automobile firm which bears his name, and is located at South Brand boulevard and San Fernando road, has been engaged in the automobile business. His first agency was in Covina. Later he moved to Glendale and in 1921 moved to Eagle Rock, having Ford agencies at these points. On January 1, 1924 he located in Glendale, and now sells Fords, Lincolns and Fordson tractors. It is worthy of note that the four agencies he has owned in as many cities have all been located in Los Angeles county.

Oakland

Backed with years of experience in the selling of automobiles, principally Oakland cars, John Neuschaeffer, present owner of the Oakland agency at 406 East Colorado street, came to Glendale in September, 1923 and became associated with Thomas Ricketts in the Oakland agency here. Before moving to Glendale, Mr. Neuschaeffer was connected with the Oakland Sales company, of Providence, R. I. He motored from Providence to Glendale. He acquired the agency in May, 1924. J. A. Ricketts, general manager at the local agency, was formerly associated with his brother, and has devoted considerable time to insurance of all kinds, but specializes in automobile insurance.

Ford, Lincoln

When Jesse E. Smith took over the Ford agency in Glendale, now located at 115 West Colorado street, in 1915 it was only a short time after he had left Detroit, where he had been connected with the Ford factories in various capacities. His first work in the automobile industry in California was in the retail sales department of the Los Angeles branch, and when Harry E. Hall withdrew from the agency in Glendale, Mr. Smith made application for it and was appointed an authorized dealer here. F. K. Lowe, sales manager for the agency, has been with Mr. Smith for eight years. He moved to Glendale in 1901 from Pasadena, where he formerly conducted a grocery business.

Nash, Lafayette

After a number of years in Milwaukee as a manufacturer of contractors' equipment, Adolph Nydegger, president of the Nash Sales company, Inc., of 1234 South Brand boulevard, came to Glendale in July, 1923 and in September of the same year took over the Nash agency, then owned by the Glendale Nash company, then located at 112 South Maryland avenue. Donald C. Barbee, treasurer of the company, also lived in Milwaukee before coming to Glendale a year ago. The present firm handles Nash and Lafayette automobiles.

Packard

After looking over the Southwest for a year, as well as visiting many other parts of the country, W. H. Daniel, president and general manager of the Dixie Motor company, 1129 South Brand boulevard, finally decided to locate in Glendale. Mr. Daniel came to this city a little over a year ago, opening the agency on May 2, 1923. It was not his first visit to Glendale, however, as he was here in August, 1922 to look over the situation. Mr.

Daniel formerly owned a Packard agency in Mississippi, and is a son of the South.

Gray

Although W. H. Gresham, president and general manager of the Valley Auto company, of 1129 South Brand boulevard, local distributors for Gray cars, has lived in Southern California for twelve years, he has only lived in Glendale a small portion of that time. The Gray agency was opened on December 1, 1923. Prior to coming to Glendale Mr. Gresham was in the tire selling business, being associated for a time with the Firestone company and later with the Ajax concern.

Reo

Selling automobiles for the last ten years has been the business life of R. C. Hennessy, general manager of the Reo Motor Car Company of California, Inc., local distributors for Reo cars. Mr. Hennessy began his career as an automobile salesman with the Earl B. Armstrong company in Los Angeles, handling Chandler cars. On December 1, 1923, he was placed in charge of the local agency, which was secured by the Reo Motor Car Company of California, from Harry E. White, who established the agency in September, 1922. Mr. Hennessy has followed the trend of automobiles during the last ten years and has watched the steady climb of efficiency in manufacture and products turned out by the factory, and has built up an organization based on courtesy, service and efficiency.

Star, Durant

Selling automobiles and fixing automobiles has been the business life for the past twenty-two years of J. F. Armstrong, general manager of Armstrong & Bradshaw, of 115 West Harvard street, local distributors for Star and Durant cars. Mr. Armstrong has been in Glendale about eighteen months, coming here from Bakersfield, where he held the Nash agency. He was located in Los Angeles for ten years, six of which he had his own service station, and did work for the Studebaker distributors. G. O. Bradshaw, shop manager and part owner of the agency, has been in Glendale about one year, coming here from Muskogee, Okla. He has been connected with the automobile industry three years, and prior to that time was a machinist in Oelwein, Iowa.

Overland, Willys-Knight

After spending 11 years in the automobile selling game in Brooklyn, Iowa, and one year in the insurance business in Hollywood, B. W. Sloan, president and general manager of the B. W. Sloan, Inc., local distributor of Overland and Willys-Knight cars, moved to Glendale. Mr. Sloan became associated with George T. Smith in the Overland agency June 1, 1923, and on May 1 of this year, Mr. Sloan became sole owner of the company and moved to the new building at 905 South Brand boulevard, only two weeks ago. Mr. Sloan has devoted practically all of the years of his business life to the automobile and insurance selling business.

Assess $500 Fine for Liquor Law Violation

Salvatore Marretto of Los Angeles, pleaded guilty on Wednesday before Judge Frank H. Lowe of the Glendale police court on a charge of possessing and transporting intoxicating liquor. He was fined $500, on payment of which he was released. The arrest took place July 8, at Los Feliz and San Fernando roads. In the car driven by Marretto were found twenty gallons of "moonshine" whiskey, in five-gallon tin cans, officers reported.

B. A. Rogers of Pasadena was fined $50 this morning by Judge Lowe, after he had pleaded guilty of having in his possession two quart bottles of gin when arrested yesterday. He was released on payment of the fine.

Prison Director to Inspect Labor Camp

SACRAMENTO, July 24. — Dr. Ramon Victorio, director of Bilibid prison, Manila, P. I., who is visiting California prisons, will inspect the Briceburg convict labor camp which consists of honor prisoners engaged in working on the Yosemite lateral of the state highway system this week. He will be accompanied by Ben H. Milliken, superintendent of the camps for the state highway commission, and Thomas L. Gannon, member of the board of state prison directors.

Economies effected in the camp, it is claimed, have made it possible for the men to make net earnings not in excess of 75 cents per day, without increasing the cost of the work to the state.

"Red Crown, Sir—
from the Red, White and Blue Pump!"

Much of the strongest praise that "Red Crown" gets comes from the 6000 dealers who sell it and know what it will do. Their faith is backed by the performance which makes "Red Crown" the most popular "gas" in the West.

To save carburetor adjustments, and to improve your car's performance on the hills and the long steady pulls, for power and mileage and true economy, use "Red Crown." You'll always be glad if you do.

And remember—Take along one or two Standard Oil Scrip Books—two yards of this scrip will take you about 1800 miles. Obtainable in $5, $10 and $20 denominations at all Standard Oil Service Stations. Convenient!—saves handling cash and is redeemable by dealers as well as at all Standard Oil Company Service Stations.

PNEUMATIC CORD TIRES

For Commercial Vehicle and Passenger Car

Above we picture what you would see if you peered back the tread of a Puncture-Proof Cord. A triple sheathing of overlapping steel discs imbedded in rubber but never touching each other, protect both casing and inner tube.

For thousands of pleasure and commercial car owners Lee Puncture-Proof Pneumatic Cords have brought to motoring not only tire economy, but a new sense of pleasure and confidence. Women drivers especially, appreciate their security against the possibility of roadside accidents.

Lee Puncture-Proof Cords, built double oversize, are unusually resilient tires. They carry a tread of proved anti-skid effectiveness. Above all, they are the only pneumatic tires in the world guaranteed on a cash refund basis against punctures. With Lee De Luxe White Tubes, which we highly recommend, they represent the ultimate in value—the only truly modern tire equipment for your car.

DESIGNS IN TILE BEAUTIFY HOMES

Variety of Material Permits
Individual Treatment
For Every Home

Throughout its phenomenal growth during the past few years nothing seems to have been overlooked in Glendale along the line of commercial art, and the announcement of the establishment of the Artercraft Tile and Mantel company, located at 111 1/2 South Orange street, is expected to elicit appreciation from those contemplating the construction of a home.

During the past few years the tile industry has expanded into what might be termed one of the great arts and today is regarded as being most essential to the beauty and durability of the home, no matter how simple or how palatial is its construction.

For many years tile has been universally used in the interior construction and decoration of large hotels, office buildings, municipal buildings, churches, schools, etc., but its popularity has more recently extended into the home not altogether from standpoint of durability, but for the sake of beauty and art.

Original Designs
Any individual or original design may be executed perfectly by the Artercraft Tile and Mantel company, whether of Gothic, Grecian, Oriental, Mission or modern type, as they carry only the most advanced designs of tile and, with their special ability to treat this product, any desired effect may be easily produced no matter how exacting.

Messrs. Macabee and White, who comprise this firm, are said to be loyal Glendale boosters.

Seventy-two thousand Panama hats were exported from Ecuador in one month recently.

REO TRAINS MEN TO GIVE SERVICE

Course of Instruction for Apprentices Given In Firm's Factory

Always a leader in training men as a means of maintaining high manufacturing standards, the Reo Motor Car company has recently augmented its work in this field by adding a new apprentice course arranged specifically for men from the service departments of its dealers' organizations, according to R. C. Hennessy, manager of the Glendale branch of the Reo Motor Car Co. of Southern California, 126 South Orange street.

"This step is inaugurated as Reo enters its twentieth year of uninterrupted success in gaining and holding public confidence in its vehicles," says Mr. Hennessy. "Back of the plan is the company's desire to improve by every possible means the service rendered the public by Reo and its dealers."

"The new course varies from that offered to factory men in the type of work taken up. Whereas the men who are being trained for work in the factory are schooled primarily in the actual manufacturing operations, the apprentices from dealers' service shops secure the most of their training in the various assembling departments. This type of work prepares them most excellently to give intelligent service when they return to their regular positions."

"The factory apprentices are schooled alternately in shop practice and class room theory, being given ample opportunity to work out class problems and theories with actual factory equipment under the supervision of six experienced instructors."

CLOSE VACATION SCHOOL SESSION

Program, Exhibit to Mark
End of Summer Bible
Course of Study

The Daily Vacation Church school of the First Methodist church, of which Rev. H. L. Rasmus, Jr., is the superintendent, will present a program and exhibit on Friday night, July 25, at 7:30 o'clock at the church located on the corner of Wilson and Kenwood streets. This program and exhibit is the closing event of the school for this year.

Mrs. McKay, who is in charge of the pageants to be presented Friday night, has worked hard in the preparation of the program. Mrs. McKay has been assisted by the teachers of the other departments, Mrs. Beulah Rasmus, of the beginners department, Mrs. H. W. Varick of the primary, and Miss Helen Woods of the Junior department.

During the session of the Daily Vacation Church school, 100 children were enrolled with an average daily attendance of 75. Mr. Rasmus is very well pleased with the work accomplished by the pupils under the direction of their teachers.

Closing Program
The following program will be presented in connection with an exhibit:

Song, "The Star Spangled Banner" followed by salute to the American flag.

Song, "Onward, Christian Soldiers" and salute to the Christian flag.

Prayer.
Song by the children of the primary department.

Memory work by the Junior children.

Beginners' song and verses.
Pageant, "The Baby Moses," by the Primary children.

Pageant, "Joseph and His Brothers" by the Junior children.

Closing song, "America."

DANCE AIDS FUND OF WOMEN'S CLUB

Lewis Sisters Are Special
Attraction on Program
At Silver Tea

TUJUNGA, July 24.—The dance given by the Tujunga Women's club last Monday night was well attended, the net proceeds amounting to $34. These dances are held every Monday night, the kindness of Mr. Hartranft making the Garden of the Moon available. Old-fashioned dances are popular and almost everyone seems to know how to dance them.

The silver tea given at the clubhouse Tuesday afternoon was almost crowded. The special attraction was the program by the Lewis Sisters trio, formerly from Boston, now building a home in Tujunga. After the program refreshments were served and the affair was pronounced a success.

The Tujunga Woman's club has received an invitation to attend the community basket picnic in the garden at the Old Mission next Saturday at 5 o'clock. A program has been prepared and a fine time is expected by all who can attend.

SCIENCE ASSISTS GROWTH OF HAIR

Barnett System of Treatment
Overcomes Baldness, Is Inventor's Claim

For many years the Bald-Headed Row has been the target for many jests both kind and unkind, but from henceforth to be a member of this organization will be a matter of option rather than compulsion, as science has gone one step further into the scheme of things and unfolded to man's sense of comprehension a system of hair growing which all naturalists have proclaimed an impossibility.

The Barnett system of hair growing, which was founded by E. M. Barnett, and which is claimed to be an infallible hair restorer, is not a tonic but consists of a treatment of the scalp by way of construction of the fat cells and the removal of the cause of the baldness. This system of treatment co-ordinates with Nature and gives the stimulus that is necessary to rebuild lost cells which in due time enables her to replace the shiny bald head with a silky growth of hair, which is Nature's natural and normal duty toward mankind.

Cause of Baldness

The cause of baldness is said to be a scale that forms over the scalp which is in some cases the result of fever, too much wetting of the hair, or accumulations, and this scale must be removed before the fat cells can be developed, thus letting Nature have her perfect domain.

This announcement of the Barnett system of Hair Growing, which is located at 221 West Broadway, will, it is believed, be received with deepest gratitude by all who have been deprived of a luxuriant growth of hair which is one of Nature's greatest beautifiers and especially those who have long since been relegated to the Bald Head Row.

Petroleum was known to exist in Northern Pennsylvania more than eighty years ago, but no effort was made to commercialize its output in quantities until 1854.

SPORTS

McGovern Winner In Bout at San Fernando

SAN FERNANDO, July 24.—Young McGovern won the popular verdict over Henry Marcus in the main event of the San Fernando Athletic club here tonight, in the bout that gave the fans all they wished. Another rattling affair was the decision Battling Ward won over Sailor Moser. In the special event Young Griff knocked out Kid Karpan in the second round. Other results were: Young Morley shaded Jimmy Brown, and Kid Reese stopped Joe Blandini.

FIGHT NEXT WEEK

Hayden Wadhams announced yesterday that Young Nationalista and Georgie Rivers would head next Tuesday's card at the Vernon arena. Rivers outpointed the Filipino in a great battle a few weeks ago, and the latter will be out to even the score.

The Cubs drove Jess Barnes off the mound in the second and won from the Braves 5 to 2.

Red Feathers Victors Against Central Team

The Red Feathers were victorious over the Central Cleaners last night at the Recreation alleys, when the ticklers won two of the three games played with the cleaners. Freigh, of the losers, rolled 239 in the last game for high score.

The Yankees slid back into first place when they defeated the Tigers in the eleventh, 4 to 3, thanks to Babe Ruth's twenty-ninth homer. Ty Cobb's poor base running cost Detroit the victory.

TOM GIBBONS IS LONDON FAVORITE

Picked to Win In Bout With Bloomfield August 9 In British Ring

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.
LONDON, July 24.—Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul wonder, is a red hot favorite to win his fight over Jack Bloomfield when they meet on August 9.
To show the trend of odds, Bernard Mortimer, former manager of Joe Beckett, the English fighter, who bet $35,000 on Beckett to defeat Georges Carpentier, the French idol, when they met for the first time, is offering 5 to 1 that Tom will win.
Gibbons is in excellent condition. He is training at the London Country club, where he has luxurious quarters and uniformed lackeys at his command, in marked contrast to conditions prevailing in Montana a year ago when he trained for his fight with Jack Dempsey.

Liked By Britons
Gibbons is rapidly displacing Carpentier as England's favorite among the foreign boxers. Crowds flock to see him go through his daily round and he is rapidly endearing himself to the hearts of the English by his modest, unassuming ways, but nevertheless his business-like methods of training.

Interest in the fight already is at fever heat. Wilson, the promoter, estimates that the gate will be more than $360,000. Gibbons will draw down $50,000 as his share.

Plan Ceremonies for Launching Memorial

To Foster Loyalty

It is believed that this building will, through bringing its members into closer contact, foster the spirit of loyalty and patriotism and promote good fellowship and good health. It should be recognized as belonging equally to the entire county and as such, bringing into association all the organizations. Great expectations are held for the many contests that will undoubtedly take place on the gymnasium floor. Contests of another nature may be held in the banquet hall in the basement. As a whole, the building is complete in every detail and the enthusiasm of its members assures its success in the community.

John T. Curtin of the Spanish War Veterans expressed what seems to be the unanimous opinion of all who have been connected with the Patriotic Hall when he said that the work of the Allied Architects Association had been a great factor in bringing about such a successful realization of their hopes.
This association was incorporated in July, 1921. At that time a small number of men of broad vision and high principles enlisted in a group for the purpose of lending their efforts to the improvement of art and architecture. They were convinced that men could work together for a common cause and through service to the public create buildings which the community could be proud of. In their field of endeavor they hoped to inject a new idea of service and a new force in civil affairs. They were willing to submerge their individual interests in this allied work. It was this collective service, this combining of many talented architects in one well regulated organization, which prompted the board of supervisors to select the association to furnish the architectural service for this county building.

Can This Engine Ever Wear Out?

PRESSURE-FEED LUBRICATION—

In the Oldsmobile Six engine you find pressure-feed lubrication to every revolving part. This superior lubrication system means long life.

BIG CRANKSHAFT—

Perfectly balanced. That means elimination of vibration—and vibration is another foe of long life.

OVERSIZE BEARINGS—

Airplane type—used in Liberty engines during the war. Require no adjustment or replacement for 30,000 or 40,000 miles.

SPLENDID COOLING—

Water flows all the way around all the six cylinders, valve seats and spark plug openings. Result—perfect cooling, no distortion, longer life. Valves are unusually large, cylinders are "honed" to a glass-like smoothness, perfectly-fitting grey iron pistons carry hammered rings. Result—perfect compression, surplus power and unusual long life.

You owe it to your pocketbook to investigate this Oldsmobile Six thoroughly.

OLDS LIGHT SIX CLAIMS REVIEWED

Car Has Proved Its Merits In Year's Existence, Dealer Declares

The Oldsmobile Light Six has now been on the market and in use for nearly a year and the satisfaction of the users proves the claim that the Olds Light Six gives service equal to cars costing more money, according to C. H. Hunter, local Glendale dealer, 208 West Broadway, who states that hardly a week passes without someone coming in to tell him about a trans-continental trip and how well the car stands up.
"When the Olds Light Six was first announced everyone said it certainly is a lot of car for the money, but will it stand up?" says Mr. Hunter. "Time has proven that it will, which was a certainty in the minds of those who know automobiles from a mechanical end. If a manufacturer puts certain things in an automobile it is bound to bring results.
"The Oldsmobile now carries a motor in which every rotating bearing is under oil pressure, the main bearings are large bronze bearings of the type used in the Liberty airplane motors, and an extra large crank shaft is used. These three items are considered to be the backbone of a motor.
All models are on display at 208-210 West Broadway.

CHAPTER X

"Perhaps so," Hilary answered, suffocating. She turned to her desk, opened a drawer, fumbled within it, and wheeled back to face him again. This was definite enough! This was something to remember, and to hug to herself tonight, when the light was out!

"And, by the way, you have heard from Kronski?" the man asked, suddenly.

"No, not yet," she answered, serenely. But she and Dora meant to take the Amati into Philadelphia anyway; they would surely see him after the concert. "You see, his mother knew my mother," she reiterated, confidently.

Craig, who knew something, he thought, of famous musicians, and their demoralizing popularity, was not so sure. Better men than Kronski had ignored stronger claims. He hoped that there was not a bitter disappointment in store for ardent, interesting Miss Collier, with her shining eyes and her demure little velvet dresses. She was rather non-committal tonight, for some reason. That or some other cause made him unusually interested in drawing her out.

"Just what are your plans for Europe? Have you considered what it means?" he asked.

"To the last penny!" she laughed. "Butterfly—I mean my sister Dora—and I have spent nights and nights covering papers with calculations. My father told me that we should need a thousand a year."

"A year!" Craig exclaimed. "A month, don't you mean?"

"Oh, hear him!" she said, amusedly. "No, indeed I mean a year. And I don't believe it'll be that in Germany now. Then there's passage—another three thousand dollars saved?" Craig actual steered—although I know we could, perfectly. But we'll go second. My father said that we needn't worry about more than three years—Butterfly'll have concert work after that, even if I should sit around doing nothing! But I'm ready for four years, in case of sickness or some unexpected expense."

"You mean you've got four thousand dollars saved?" Craig demanded. He had done settlement work in college, he had followed budgets, reports, average incomes and expenditures through a generous press; he knew something of America's besetting weakness.

"I will have more than that," almost five," she answered proudly, a little ashamed of her practicability, and a little afraid, in this unexpected first instant of his real admiration of her as an individual, that she might be losing some vaguely defined glamour or charm in his eyes.

"You—but how much of it have you saved?" Craig demanded.

"Well, almost all. My father left insurance, but then we hadn't finished paying for the house when he died; I had to go on with that. And Butterfly was ill, and I had to pay Mrs. Poett twenty-two dollars a month for—oh, I—years. She took care of us, and the house—"

"But—but what does my uncle pay you, in the name of all that's sensible?"

"I came in at seven dollars a week—just fruit-season extra help, you know. But then they kept me on at forty a month, and then fifty."

"Which you couldn't live on?" he said.

"Which of course we could and did live on!" Hilary answered, amused.

Craig continued to regard her, absorbed.

"And now we are paying you."

"Oh, now!" Forty a week," she told him proudly.

That was all. Craig made some rather non-committal comment, looked at his wrist-watch; Hilary glanced at her own. Five o'clock and she must go home to Dora, she thought. Five o'clock, thought Craig, and he must get home to dress for that accursed dinner at the Dwyers' twenty-two miles away.

But Hilary was content. Tomorrow was the great date of the Kronski concert; and tonight she and Craig Spaulding had approached something nearer friendship than they had ever known. Life, she thought, could be very wonderful!

Her contented generalities rapidly developed into definite details; there was a great deal to do about costumes, for tomorrow Dora met her at the door with a bright and eager face.

Compunction, almost shame, smote Hilary. She had planned to ask for a holiday tomorrow, the better to prepare for the afternoon's excitement. And she had not quite forgotten it. But she had not really wanted to lose an office day, with its breathing possibilities of a few words here and there with Craig.

"Why don't you take it?" Dora

One of the snappiest comedies of the season is "A Mile-a-Minute Kendall," now being presented at 8 o'clock nightly by Murphy's Comedians at their tent theatre on Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, between Brand boulevard and Central avenue.

"A Mile-a-Minute Kendall" might well have been called "Hurricane Kendall," for the lad surely "spills a mean trail of dust," to lapse into the vernacular of a jazz age, which one instinctively associates with such a peppy, jazzy play.

The play is rapid-fire from first to last and shows this capable troupe in yet another role that fits them to a "T." Judging from the hit this play is making, it is evidently the light, speedy dramatic vehicle that carries the crowds today.

urged, seeing her omission in her face. "Oh, go on! Old Kraut wasn't there to ask, and Mr. Spaulding is in Philadelphia. Craig Spaulding won't care—he's going to Bermuda anyway, next week, with the Vanderworts!"

"Who said he was?" Hilary asked, her heart turning to lead. There it was again, his utter superiority to anything in Mount Holly, or in her little sphere.

"Maude Underwood did—I met her in the post office. She said that he was simply crazy about young Mrs. Reggy Vanderwort, even before she was married—"

"Oh, gracious, I wish people wouldn't talk to you that way, Butterfly!" Hilary exclaimed.

"Maude said that Craig Spaulding gave a big dinner at some New York club when he was in town last week. . . . Dora pursued, innocently. A perfectly unreasonable ache of jealousy seized Hilary; she wished to hear no more. To put on her old ging-ham kitchen dress, and begin to putter with bowls of cold rice and loy, sticky stewed prunes seemed almost a physical impossibility tonight.

Meanwhile Craig had gotten himself into irreproachable evening wear, and shaken himself into his big fur-lined coat, and set forth into forbidding darkness to drive the long miles between his home and his dinner.

The Dwyers were enormously wealthy friends from New York, who had a country place near Philadelphia, where they occasionally gave winter house-parties, inviting—as Craig well knew—a decidedly mixed crowd, of visiting Englishmen, Frenchmen and Italians, of writers, actors, dancers, and notabilities generally, and trusting, as Mrs. Dwyer amiably and stupidly phrased it, that after dinner, you know, when we've all had something to drink, you know, things'll kind of warm up!"

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S RADIO

"Dear me, I hope Uncle Wiggily's rheumatism isn't paining him again," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy to herself as she walked softly about in the hollow stump bungalow. "He hasn't come down to breakfast yet," she went on. "And it's past time he went adventuring."

Just then, from the bunny gentleman's room, the muskrat lady housekeeper heard some chuckles of laughter.

"I guess he isn't ill or he wouldn't giggle like that," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy to herself. And then, aloud, she called: "Wiggily, aren't you going to come to breakfast and then go adventuring?"

"I'll come to breakfast, but I'm not going adventuring!" laughed the bunny, opening the door. And when Nurse Jane was going to ask why, she saw on a table near Uncle Wiggily's bed a new radio set, with dials and knobs and all manner of little shiny jiggers for tuning in on all the stations of the world.

"I brought this home last night when you were asleep," said Mr. Longears to Nurse Jane. "I got it why, she saw on a table near Uncle Wiggily's bed a new radio set, with dials and knobs and all manner of little shiny jiggers for tuning in on all the stations of the world."

Nurse Jane sighed, but she said nothing. "It's going to be just like when he played golf," she thought. "However, I'm glad he isn't ill. And the radio will keep him jolly."

All day long Uncle Wiggily listened to his new radio, tuning in and hearing a concert or a talk on how to make turnip candy out of potato peelings. The rabbit was just tuning in on a bedtime story about himself when, all of a sudden, the door of his room opened. "Come and hear this, Nurse Jane," he said, thinking it was the muskrat lady. "It's quite clever." But instead of being Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, it was the Woozie Wolf.

"Gurr! Gurr!" growled the Wolf, showing his teeth. "Which of your ears shall I nibble first, Uncle Wiggily?"

"Neither one, if you please," said the bunny, taking the head phones off. "I don't want my ears nibbled!"

"But I am going to nibble them, all the same," growled the Wolf.

Uncle Wiggily thought of his new radio. If his ears were nibbled he never could listen in again. Then the bunny thought of a clever trick. He said to the Wolf: "Wouldn't you like to listen to some lovely music before you nibble me?"

"Yes," growled the Wolf. "I love music! Let me hear some!"

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

"Dear Doctor:—I was one of those who, by following your directions I am now cured of constipation by following your articles on that subject. We would not miss your daily talk in the paper for anything. Thank you again and again.—J."

Every once in a while, we hear from our T. T. S. one T. T. S. letter to 50, perhaps more F. F. F. I don't believe those who are too thin are nearly so anxious to gain as those who are overweight, are to reduce. It is apparently harder to eat when you don't want to eat, than it is to not eat when you do want to. Do see your physician for the trouble you mention, Mrs. J. You probably need surgical attention.

Mr. J.—Yes, tattoo marks can be removed. The treatment of these marks consists in causing the destruction of the superficial layers of the skin by some chemical irritants. You should go to a skin specialist for this.

Mrs. V.—We know that calcium (lime) is an element of fundamental importance for the body and that it plays a major role in bone and teeth formation. It is also highly important for the blood and tissues. The American diets are usually deficient in this most necessary element. However, even though plenty of calcium bearing foods are taken, unless the diet contains sufficient vitamins and other minerals, the calcium may not be absorbed properly. So don't think that you are getting enough calcium by simply adding milk to a diet which is deficient in greens and other vegetables and fruits. The fact that sometimes children who are getting plenty of milk with its high supply of calcium still will develop rickets, shows that other factors are necessary to cause the proper absorption of calcium. Sunlight is very important.

Mrs. C. F.—You ask if chilling of the body can give rise to colds. If the chilling is prolonged there is no doubt that it can. Many people can directly trace colds to severe chilling. It used to be thought that the chilling of the body surface gave rise to a congestion of the blood vessels in the mucous membrane of the nose and so lowered the resistance, but some experimental work on students has proven this to be incorrect. It was found that when the body surface was chilled, in-

Home Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodbury of 315 West Ceritos avenue, was the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alice Josephine Woodbury, and Thomas Nellie Evans of Colorado, last night at 8 o'clock. Rev. H. I. Rasmus, Jr., assistant pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. The setting for the nuptials was a floral arch of pepper boughs intermingled with oleanders. Shasta daisies, dahlias, and hydrangeas were also used in decorating.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Nellie Papon of Santa Monica played two violin solos and Mrs. Roy Biddlecomb of Glendale rendered two vocal selections. The bride's mother, Mrs. W. E. Woodbury, played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin for the entrance of the bride.

Miss Woodbury was given in marriage by her father, W. E. Woodbury. She wore a dainty white voile frock trimmed with lace and ribbons. Her bouquet was a shower of pink sweetpeas, roses and maidenhair fern. Wallace A. Woodbury, brother of the bride, served Mr. Evans as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception and dancing were enjoyed. There were twenty-eight relatives and friends in attendance at the wedding ceremony and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be glad to welcome their many friends at 212-C South Central avenue, where they will make their home. Mrs. Evans has resided in Glendale with her parents for the past four years. She attended the local high school and has a host of friends here. Mr. Evans has resided in Glendale for the past three months, coming here from Colorado.

Hostess Saturday

Mrs. F. P. Newport is to be luncheon hostess Saturday at the Oakmont Country club, complimentary to her niece, Miss Ruby Briner of Fresno, and Miss Amy Zott, who is visiting in Southern California from St. Louis.

Thirteen guests will be seated with the hostess at the table reserved for those hidden to meet Miss Zott and a group of the younger set will be seated at the table reserved to honor Miss Briner, who has been living with the Newports while attending school the past year in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. H. Briner, sister of Mrs. Newport, has come south with her younger daughter, Miss Ruth, and they are living through the summer at "Casa Loma," the Newport home in Verdugo Woodlands. Mr. Briner is on a hunting trip in the north.

Birthday Party

Grace Bonwell was the honoree at a delightful affair yesterday afternoon when her mother, Mrs. Bonwell of 3255 Atwater avenue, entertained with a party in the celebration of her eleventh birthday anniversary.

A pink and white color scheme was attractively carried out with arrangements of flowers. The refreshment table decorations, favors and nut baskets were also carried out in the same tints. The centerpiece was a beautifully decorated birthday cake bearing eleven pink candles. The afternoon was devoted to games and a general good time. The honoree was the recipient of many lovely gifts from her little friends. Those present included Dorothy Parker, Genevieve Hinderson, Mae Buss, Muriel and Alice McKenzie, Audrey King, Florence Jones, Don Marion Davis, Bobby Gorham, Francis Finley, Eunice Woodburn and Grace Bonwell.

Rodaire Affair

Mrs. Ray Engle of 712 South Maryland avenue entertained last Tuesday night, Mrs. Tobias's two brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Monnette of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Monnette of Glendale.

Mrs. Flora Pixley and daughter, Miss Olive of 116 West Loma avenue, have as their guest their niece and cousin, Miss Anna Marie Dillon of Denver. Miss Dillon, who is a teacher of Spanish in the Denver High school, is en route to Alaska for a summer trip. She will spend two weeks in Glendale.

Hold Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew F. Sund of 1344 East Broadway entertained with a delightful informal reception and dinner at their home, Tuesday, in the celebration of Mr. Sund's seventy-eighth birthday anniversary. They were surrounded by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sund of Petaluma, California, and their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Dinsdale of San Francisco and other relatives and a number of friends who called during the day showering Mr. Sund with congratulations and good wishes.

Dance Tonight

A dancing party is to be held tonight at the Tuesday Afternoon club under the auspices of Community Service. All Glendale people enjoying dancing are invited to attend. Mrs. Dorothy Morton Hastings, chairman of social dancing for Community Service, announces that dancing will begin at 8 and continue until 11:30 o'clock. Miss B. Jensen is chairman of the reception committee; Mrs. Laurie Smith, chairman of the door committee, and Miss Ruth Ryan, chairman of refreshments.

K. C. Card Party

Knights of Columbus are anticipating a benefit card party to be held tonight at the K. C. club house at 330 East Loma street. George Killinger is chairman of the committee arranging the affair. After the card games attractive prizes will be awarded, and later a program given for entertainment.

Offer of Free Razor Attracting Many Men

"Dollar Day" features greeted Glendale residents who visited Funk's Pharmacy at the corner of Palmer and Adams streets. These special prizes were advertised last night in The Glendale Evening News. The big attraction was a Durham Double razor given free with every purchase of Park-Davis & Company shaving cream. Those who made purchases at Funk's today are convinced that the store is offering every day much wanted articles at reasonable prices.

9 to 10 p. m.—Program presenting Dr. Daniel Nelson Clark, of the Radio Journal, lecturer, Anton Chris, Hawaiian guitar, Charles Wellman, jazz tenor, through the courtesy of Kierulff and Ravenscroft. Bill Hatch, pianist.

10 to 11 p. m.—Art Hickman's Dance orchestra from the Biltmore hotel.

KFI (Earle C. Anthony, Inc.) 5 to 5:30 p. m.—The Evening Herald.

5:30 to 6 p. m.—The Examiner—Music, news.

6:45 to 8 p. m.—Anthony—Artist, pupils of Ethel Lillian Clark and Caroline Handeley. Talk by Manny Simmons.

8 to 9 p. m.—Anthony—Concert orchestra, Hotel Ambassador. 9 to 10 p. m.—The Examiner—Program presented by the Chamber of Commerce of Placencia.

10 to 11 p. m.—Anthony—Operatic recital by Harry Girard.

Our Dependable Hosiery

The well dressed woman of today is just as particular in the selection of her hosiery as any other portion of her apparel, for you'll find no better mark of refined good taste than proper hosiery. Dainty stockings enhance the appearance of a neat pair of shoes, and it is to those that appreciate a fine quality, superior finish and a dainty style that our Gordon Dye Hosiery appeal.

MAKE PLANS FOR FIRE PROTECTION

Glendale Unit to Receive Complete Co-operation, Officials Promise

The unlimited co-operation of the County Forester's department in the work of the Glendale unit of the Angeles Forest Protective association, was pledged last night by J. A. Graves of the public relations department of the County Forester's office, at the meeting of the local unit that was held in the council chamber of the City hall, with Percy J. Hayselden, chief, presiding.

C. G. Dunwoody, president of the association, who was called north recently to organize fire-fighting units similar to those that compose the Angeles Forest Protective association, told of the spread of the movement all over the state to protect the forests against fires through the formation of units similar to those that compose the Angeles Forest Protective association. The railroad companies, said Mr. Dunwoody, are showing their eagerness to co-operate for the protection of the forests and other agencies are also entering enthusiastically into the movement.

Praises Local Results
The results that have been attained in the organization of the Glendale unit were warmly praised by Mr. Dunwoody, who also pledged the fullest co-operation of the association in putting the local unit on a footing of the fullest efficiency.

Leo Lang of Tujunga, one of the best known fire-fighters in the state, was named as first assistant chief of the Glendale unit, to have actual direction of all fire-fighting operations in the event of an outbreak. An offer to defray the cost of all barbecues that the unit may stage was made by F. P. Newport, who also stated that he would offer prizes to be competed for at a field day that is to be held some time in September and at which all the units of the association will enter teams in the different events that are being planned.

Harry E. White also addressed the meeting on the need for protection of the territory adjacent to Glendale, County Forester.

Shoppers Fill Stores During Day at Webb's

A popular shopping center in Glendale on "Dollar Day" was the H. S. Webb store on North Brand boulevard at Wilson avenue. Announcement of the Webb "Dollar Day" features was made last night in a page display advertisement in The Glendale Evening News. Something tempting was offered in every department and the big store thronged with shoppers all day. The Webb store always offers fairly quality goods at desirable prices and is a convincing argument in favor of Glendale people trading in Glendale.

Sherrod's Shop Scene Of Big Bargain Crowd

Sherrod's shop at 133 North Brand boulevard, in the Palace Grand shops building, was the goal of many Glendale people who read the Sherrod's display advertisement last night in The Glendale Evening News. Exacting women know that every day reasonable prices and quality goods attract them to Sherrod's but today the "Dollar Day" features were most tempting.

Stuart J. Flintham had been expected to speak, but owing to the arrival of his parents on a visit to California he was forced to cancel his appointment.

Weary Shoppers Find Good Food Is Offered

One must eat even on "Dollar Day" and weary shoppers today found something refreshing at the C. & S. Cafeteria at 222 North Brand boulevard. An invitation to visit the C. & S. Cafeteria appeared last night in the display columns of The Glendale Evening News. The new ventilating system is now in operation at this popular eating place, and diners there enjoyed a menu of good, wholesome food for which the C. & S. is noted 365 days in the year.

Fine Linens Offered At Dollar Bargains

The Irish Linen store at 117 North Brand boulevard, always attracts the lover of fine linens, and today on "Dollar Day" the sales staff was busy from morning until night serving countless shoppers who swarmed in and out of the store. Special offerings advertised last night in The Glendale Evening News, were a cash silk and Jap crepe, both of which were splendid bargains and in great demand.

Shoes Sold for One Dollar for Each Pair

Even a pair of shoes could be bought for a dollar today at the Glendale Bootery at 221 North Brand boulevard. "Where Business Is Good" is the slogan appearing in the Bootery display advertisement in last night's Glendale Evening News. This store offers splendid values all the year around and today was one of those special days when patrons of the store were offered fine stock at remarkable reductions.

Delivered Washer on Payment of Dollar

One dollar went pretty far today at Washer Wilson's at 205 East Broadway, where, as was announced last night in the display columns of The Glendale Evening News, one dollar cash would secure delivery of an electric washer and a year's supply of soap free. There were other special "Dollar Day" features offered giving home owners the opportunity of learning the quality of the stock being handled at this well-known store.

Broadway Shoe Store Has Special Bargains

"Dollar Day" specials were announced last night in The Glendale Evening News by the Broadway Shoe store at 312 East Broadway. Throughout the year this store offers Glendale people good goods at good values. During the month of July a clearance sale has been in progress and today this summer sale had some unusual offerings in keeping with the spirit of the "Dollar Day" observance.

English soldiers are called effeminate by a London woman doctor, who cites cigarette smoking and wearing of warm clothing as indications of weakness.

RULES FOR MAIL DELIVERIES TOLD

Extension of Letter Carrier
Service Only Made as Streets Are Paved

Regulations for the extension of city carrier delivery, as received from Washington, D. C., by Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson, are given herewith for the information of Glendale residents, and especially those who have been putting forth efforts to have the delivery service widened in scope to keep pace with the growth of Glendale.

"The delivery limits may not be extended by the postmaster," says Captain Jackson, "without specific authority from the post office department at Washington, D. C. Such authority will be given only when the territory to which it is proposed to extend service is provided with good, continuous sidewalks, cross-walks, street lights and street signs, and houses numbered and provided with mail receptacles or slots in the doors for the reception of mail.

"Each block must be 50 per cent improved and occupied. It is preferable that the new territory be contiguous, but this is not an absolute requirement.

Letter Receptacles
"Apartment houses must provide receptacles near the entrance, as a carrier delivery will not be made to the different rooms of suites on any floor in apartment houses, whether or not they are equipped with elevators. "Architects, builders and owners contemplating the erection of new buildings, hotels, apartment houses, office buildings, etc., should consult the post office as to modern requirements of mail receptacles and mail deposit boxes, thus possibly saving trouble and money through erroneous construction and placing.

"A bad dog with a carrier appetite is cause sufficient to stop carrier delivery at your residence at any time."

Comparative few people in Mexico have their mail delivered at their street address, but rent postoffice boxes and call for it.

Peanuts now are raised on 2,731,000 acres of Italy, 102,000 more acres than last year.

CHILDREN STAGE CARNIVAL DANCE

Industrial Show Sponsored By Clubwomen Proves
Success, Report

Success continues to mark the carnival and industrial show being given at San Fernando Road and South Brand boulevard under the auspices of the Thursday Afternoon club.

The big feature last night was a most enjoyable program by a group of pupils from Mrs. Nanno Woods' School of Klever Kiddies. Those taking part were Charles Kent, New Courtney, Robert Jencks, Louise Hill, James Watson, Bert Humphrey, Rose Kuranga, Viola Trenne, Ruth Fakler, Barbara Bird, Evelyn Bemaney, Burrell Yarrick, Welton Kent and Joseph Taylor.

Pupils of Marcella Webb's school of dancing will appear tonight as the entertainment feature.

Baby Show Coming
Interest in the baby show on Saturday afternoon is increasing and last night a group of cunning youngsters were registered. They are Virginia Yvonne Harwood, 3 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harwood of 811 1/2 East Orange Grove avenue; Lillian Sylvia Berger, 5 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berger of 412 West Garfield avenue; Betty Jene Bliven, 3 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Bliven; Marion Elizabeth Zerman, 9 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Zerman, 3428 La Clede avenue; Sheila A. Matier, 16 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Matier, 616 North Columbus avenue; John Robert McCracken, 16 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. McCracken, 325 McHenry street.

EXECUTION DELAYED

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The writ of error in the case of Isaac Wolfgang, 60, of Los Angeles, convicted murderer, was received by William R. Stansbury, clerk of the Supreme court, today. The case will probably be reviewed at the next session of the Supreme court. Until that time the execution of Wolfgang, which was to have taken place today, will be held up.

Pendroy Department Store 'Family' At Informal Dinner And Jolly Social Affair

Reflecting the spirit of cooperation and good fellowship existing among the employees of the Pendroy Department store, was the jolly, informal "family" dinner and social affair last night at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, where Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pendroy were hosts.

The enjoyment and success of the event was indeed an inspiration for the employees on the eve of the big dollar day sales event, and today as the throngs of shoppers crowded through the store exclamations of the pleasures of last night's affair were voiced by the employees as they hurried about serving the patrons.

Show Appreciation
These crowds of shoppers taking advantage of the "Dollar Day" offerings, happily emphasized the dinner affair, which celebrated the close of a recent campaign for 5000 new customers. After the dinner hour last night Mr. Pendroy spoke in appreciation of the spirited enthusiasm and active support the employees displayed during the campaign, and presented the prizes to those employees securing the most new customers, and gave honorable mention to others.

The first prize of $25 in cash was presented to Mrs. Blanche Horsman of the lace and trimming department; the second prize of $15 in cash, to Mrs. Bernice Center of the drapery department; the third prize of $7.50 to Mrs. Irene Uhlenbrock of the alterations department. Honorable mention was given Miss Merwin of the domestic department; Mrs. Lulu Wittiste of the millinery department; Miss Fern Stringham of the linen department.

At Dinner Tables
With the closing of the store late yesterday afternoon the employees gathered in a body and went to the Tuesday Afternoon club house, where they gathered about artistically decorated tables in the Italian tea room. Lovely flowers and bright colored balloons were decorative features. Jolly informality marked the dinner hour.

E. C. Carter was the clever and witty master of ceremonies, presenting an after-dinner program, the major portion of which was given by employees of the store.

Opening numbers were piano solos by Mrs. Louise Saeger. Following these, F. K. McNeil, manager and merchandiser of the ready-to-wear department, who was promoter of the recent campaign, gave a talk on "What Can Be Done in the Store." He stressed the importance of keeping as permanent patrons the customers won during the campaign.

Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Bernice Center, accompanied by Mrs. Saeger. Mrs. Center's voice is known to radio fans, and last night she was heartily applauded.

Pleasing Program
In a clever poem, John Swearingin told of the "Advantages of California Over the Middle West."

A pianologue was given by Mr. Sullivan, and later N. C. Smith of the shoe department gave an inspirational talk on "Helping One Another in Business."

"Sweet Bunch of Parcels" was the very timely subject of the selection given by the women's quartet, composed of Mesdames Horsman, Spaulding, Aber and Bartholmew. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Kapus.

Mrs. Provin gave a sketch of store personalities in an original poem. Following this, Thurston Knudson, one of the guests, entertained with songs, playing his own accompaniment on the ukulele.

"The men's quartet, Messrs. Morse, Damon, Green and Tolson, with the assistance of a fifth singer, gave "Sweet and Low."

Offers Message
The company was most happy to hear a message from Mr. Olliger, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, who, with Mrs. Olliger, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pendroy. Mr. Olliger's message was "Never start until you have set a goal, and never stop until you reach it."

"End of a Perfect Day," sung by Mrs. Center, closed the program.

Kelly's Shrine Club orchestra furnished music for dancing in the ballroom. Bright colored balloons decorated the chandeliers, while balloons, horns, whistles and other favors were presented to the dancers.

Wives and other guests of the employees joined the company for the later part of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pendroy had as their special guests Mrs. J. C. Knudson and Thurston Knudson of Los Angeles, Miss Florence Madden of Youngstown, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Olliger of Long Beach.

REPORTS REVEAL CHURCH'S GROWTH

Adventist Conference Hears
Of Increase In Funds
And Membership

Seventh-day Adventists of Glendale are in attendance at the biennial session of the Southern California conference, which opened today at Long Beach and is continuing throughout today. Members of the denomination from San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles counties and that part of Kern county south of the Tehachapi, as well as a group of church leaders from other parts of the United States, are participating in the gathering.

Elder W. M. Adams of Eagle Rock, president of the Southern California conference, is presiding officer. Yesterday he gave a detailed report of 1923, 1923 and 1924 to date, revealing figures of vital interest to the church people.

Church Donations
This statistical resume compiled from the records in the secretary-treasurer's office showed that the grand total of sacred funds for the two years, 1922 and 1923, was $799,077.70, the amount per capita, yearly average, being $101.18. Sacred funds include tithes, foreign mission offerings, home missions and local work, church school salaries.

For the first six months of 1924 the report shows that the tithe from January 1 to June 30 was $128,281.14, a gain over the same period of 1923 of $19,615.34. The foreign mission offerings from January to June total $50,221.92, a gain over the same period of 1923 of $9,952.07.

Members Increase
New converts reported for the twenty-four months of 1923 and 1924 total 513, while the number of new converts for the six months of 1924 is 244.

Most interesting is the item on membership. The membership January 1, 1922, was 3532; for January 1, 1923, it was 3984; for January 1, 1924, it was 4365; and for June 30, 1924, it was 4886, showing a gain in two and a half years of 1354.

Committees Named
Standing committees functioning at the beach conference are announced as: Committee on plans, O. Montgomery, G. W. Reaser, Dean Lower, H. G. Lucas, J. A. Burden, W. W. Ruble, A. G. Daniels, V. H. Lucas, Cleora Webster, G. A. Snyder, L. A. Reynolds, S. A. Goodwin, I. A. Ford, A. W. Truman, W. F. Knox, F. E. Corson, Glen Calkins; committee on nominations, J. L. McElhany, James Howarth, J. W. Rich, L. Rhodes, E. W. Alsbarger, P. E. Sanford, S. N. Brown, J. W. Hofstar, M. A. McElhany; committee on ministerial credentials and licenses, E. W. Farnsworth, P. L. Knox, R. W. Parmelee, W. M. Adams, C. J. Kunkle.

GATHER DATA ON NEED FOR PARKS

Planning Official Favors
Tax Levy to Purchase
Available Sites

By GIL A. COWAN

For Southland News Service, LOS ANGELES, July 24.—"What are the park needs of your section?" That was a question put to the writer as a representative of The Glendale Evening News by Hugh Pomeroy, secretary of the county regional planning commission.

At the present time Mr. Pomeroy is greatly interested in obtaining parks for the county so they may be fitted into a general scheme. Also, he has submitted a proposal that legislation be introduced permitting the levy of a county tax for the purchase and maintenance of such parks.

"Parks are the greatest need of any section which is being rapidly populated," according to Mr. Pomeroy, who made a trip to the eastern cities to see how they had met their problems. "We want to know now what lands are suitable—and available—in order to lay our plans accordingly."

Inasmuch as it comes within the province of the planning commission to attend to this detail of preserving playgrounds for the future, Mr. Pomeroy makes his appeal to those who have suggestions to offer them at this time.

Also, the matter of scenic drives in reference to present parks and possible parks, such as about along the Arroyo Seco and the Los Angeles river, are a matter of planning which will take time and money and coordinated effort.

The planning commission seeks such available data.

Order Abandonment of 'Pittsburgh Plus' Plan

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The United States Steel corporation will be given sixty days in which to carry out the federal trade commission's decree, ordering abandonment of the "Pittsburgh plus" system of determining the price of steel, it was announced here today.

If, at the end of two months, the corporation has failed to change its price arrangements, the circuit court will be asked to enforce its decree. The corporation in the meantime has the right to appeal to the same court for relief from the commission's order.

A comparison of the prices on their quality goods is requested by the management of those who desire to be convinced of the great savings to be effected by trading at this reliable store. An inspection of the window displays will be sufficient to assure the prospective buyer that bargain prices prevail.

Chicago Man Here, Likes City, Buys Home, Lots And Automobile; Pays All Cash

One of the latest arrivals in Glendale to express his faith in the future of this city with cold cash is Albert Hofstetter of 585 Palm drive. Arriving here from Chicago with his family five weeks ago, he promptly bought his home at the above address, purchased a car and bought several lots, all for cash. He believes Glendale offers the greatest opportunity of any city in Southern California and means to enter the building business here.

Mr. Hofstetter comes to Glendale well qualified to make a success in this line. For twenty-five years he has been a successful Chicago builder, doing his bit toward transforming that little prairie settlement into the second greatest metropolis in the United States. He sees a great future in Glendale and believes that the coming fall and winter will witness one of its most important forward strides.

Pamphlet Is Lure
It was through a pamphlet in a Chicago bank, distributed by a Glendale bank, that Mr. Hofstetter first heard of Glendale. He admits that when he was in Los Angeles five years ago the word Glendale never came to his ears. Concluding that a city which could have grown from 10,000 to over 50,000 in five years was the ideal place to locate as a builder, he cleared up his affairs and brought his family here, determined to live and work in Glendale for the rest of his life.

Mr. Hofstetter believes that the present is the psychological time to build homes, as the greatest decreases in costs have been for those materials which are used to the largest extent in the building business, and because of the fact that labor is also plentiful. These savings, he feels, can be carried over directly to home buyers, who will be quick to realize that the time they have been waiting for to buy homes has arrived.

Sees Prosperity
The so-called "slump" is hailed by Mr. Hofstetter as ridiculous and unfounded. While things in general have been a little quiet this spring and summer in southern California, due to a dry winter, the cattle epidemic, power shortage and other reasons, he argues that Glendale's building permits to date have more than kept pace with those of a year ago. From the angles of the real estate man, the builder, the banker and the farmer, he sees ahead a fall and winter of unprecedented activity.

"Real estate has held steady, and is already on the rise," declares Mr. Hofstetter. "Builders have not faltered and are now preparing for greater activity than ever. The banks, which tightened up a while ago to curb unwarranted speculation, are opening up. And throughout the middle west farmers are reporting the prospect of bumper crops."

PICTURES REVEAL HAVOC IN LORAIN

Freak Damage Done by Storm Graphically Shown
In Photographs

The havoc wrought by the recent storm that swept Lorain, Ohio, is vividly portrayed in a series of photographs that have been received by Morgan N. Smith, 2041 Mountain street, Glendale, head of the mechanical arts department of the Glendale Union High school.

The pictures were sent to Mr. Smith by his sister, Mrs. H. A. Barschow, of Cleveland, who has been doing Red Cross work in Lorain since the disaster. Mr. Smith formerly resided in Lorain and still has a number of relatives there, all of whom, fortunately, escaped injury in the storm.

Many freaks of the whirlwind are shown in the photographs. In one case a spare tire has been torn half way off the rear end of an automobile and has caught on a post, anchoring the car; and in another picture is shown a tumbled street car, with a footnote saying that it was whirled around like a rubber ball.

The official count of the fatalities, when Mrs. Barschow wrote, was ninety-seven dead and sixty missing.
